THE BEAVER ARGUS.

Vol. 54---No. 36. Beaver, Pa., Wednesday, September 18, 1872. Established 1818.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements are inserted at the rate of $1,00 per square for first insertion, and for each subsequent insertion 50 cents. A liberal discount made on yearly advertisements.

A space equal to ten lines of this type measures a square.

Business Notices set under a head by themselves immediately after the local news will be charged ten cents a line each insertion.

Advertisements should be handed in by Monday noon to insure insertion in that week's paper.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

J. WALKER, Prop'r. R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, Cal., and cor. of Washington and Charlton Sts., New York. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS & DEALERS.

SELECT MISCELLANY.

THE UMBRELLA GIRL.

BY L. MARIA CHILD.

A young girl, the only daughter of a poor widow, removed from the country to Philadelphia to earn her living by covering umbrellas. She was very handsome, with glossy black hair, large, beaming eyes, and "lips like wet coral." She was just at that susceptible age when youth is ripening into womanhood—when the soul begins to be pervaded by "that restless principle which impels poor humans to seek perfection in union."

At a hotel, near the store for which she worked, an English traveler called Lord Henry Stuart, had taken lodgings. He was a strikingly handsome man, and of princely carriage. As this distinguished stranger passed to and from the hotel, he encountered the umbrella girl, and he was attracted by her uncommon beauty. He easily traced her to the store, where he soon after went to purchase an umbrella. This was followed by presents of flowers, chats by the wayside, and invitations to walk or ride, all of which was gratefully accepted by the unsuspecting rustic; for she was as ignorant of the dangers of a city as were the squirrels of her native fields.

He was merely playing a game for temporary excitement. She with a head full of romance and a heart melting under the [illegible] was unconsciously endangered. In the simplicity of her heart she believed all his flattering professions, and considered herself his bride elect; she therefore accepted the invitation with innocent frankness. But she had no dress fit to wear on such a public occasion, with a gentleman of high rank, whom she really supposed to be her destined husband. While these thoughts revolved in her mind, her eye was unfortunately attracted by a beautiful piece of silk belonging to her employer. Could she take it, without being seen, and pay for it secretly when she had earned money enough? The temptation conquered her in a moment of weakness. She concealed the silk, and conveyed it to her lodgings. It was the first thing she had ever stolen, and her remorse was great. She would have carried it back, but she dreaded discovery. She was not sure her repentance would be met in a spirit of forgiveness.

On the eventful Fourth of July she came out in her new dress. Lord Henry complimented her upon her elegant appearance, but she was not happy. On their way to the gardens, he talked to her in a manner she did not comprehend. Perceiving this he spoke more explicitly. The guileless young creature stopped, looked in his face with a mournful reproach, and burst into tears. The nobleman took her hand kindly, and said, "My dear, are you an innocent girl?"

"I am, I am!" she exclaimed with convulsive sobs. "Oh! what have I ever done or said, that you should ask me such a strange question?"

The evident sincerity of her words stirred the deep fountains of his better nature. "If you are innocent," said he, "God forbid that I should make you otherwise. But you accepted my invitations and presents so readily, that I supposed you understood me."

"What could I understand," said she, "except that you intended, in good faith, to make me your wife?"

Though reared among the proudest distinctions of rank, he felt no inclination to smile. He blushed and was silent. The heartless conventionalities of the world stood rebuked in the presence of affectionate simplicity. He conveyed her to her humble home, and bade her farewell with a thankful consciousness that he had done no irretrievable injury to her future prospects. The remembrance of her would be to him as the recollection of last year's butterflies. With her, the wound was deep. In the solitude of her chamber she wept in bitterness of heart over her ruined air-castles. And that dress, which she had stolen to make an appearance befitting a bride! Oh! what if she should be discovered? Would not the heart of her poor widowed mother break if she should ever know that her child was a thief?

Alas! her wretched foreboding proved too true.

The silk was traced to her; she was arrested on her way to the store, and dragged to prison. There she refused all nourishment and wept incessantly. On the fourth day, the keeper called on Isaac T. Hopper, and informed him that there was a young girl in prison who appeared to be utterly friendless, and determined to die of starvation. The kind-hearted Friend immediately went to her assistance. He found her lying on the floor of her cell, with her face burried in her hands, sobbing as if her heart would break. He tried to comfort her but could obtain no answer.

"Leave us alone," said he to the keeper. "Perhaps she will speak to me, if there is no one to hear." When they were left alone together, he put back the hair from her temples, laid his hand kindly on her beautiful head, and said in soothing tones: "My child consider me as thy father. Tell me all thou hast done. If thou hast taken this silk let me know all about it. I would do for thee as I would for my own daughter, and I doubt not that I can help thee out of this difficulty."

After a long time spent in affectionate entreaty, she leaned her young head gently on his friendly shoulder, and sobbed out: "Oh! I wish I was dead! What will my poor mother say when she knows of my disgrace?"

"Perhaps we can manage that she shall never know it," replied he. Alluring her by this hope, he gradually obtained from her the whole story of her acquaintance with the nobleman. He bade her to be comforted, and take nourishment, for he would see that the silk was paid for, and the prosecution withdrawn. He went immediately to her employer, and told him the story.

"This is the girl's first offense. She is the only child of a poor widow. Give her a chance to retrieve this one false step, and she may be restored to society, a useful, honored woman. I will see that thou art paid for the silk."

The man agreed to withdraw the prosecution, and said he would have dealt otherwise by the girl if he had known all the circumstances.

"Thou shouldst have inquired into the merits of the case," replied Friend Hopper. "By this kind of thoughtlessness many a young person is driven into the downward path, who might easily have been saved."

The kind hearted man next proceeded to the hotel, and, with Quaker simplicity of speech inquired, for Henry Stuart. The Servant said his lordship had not yet risen. "Tell him my business is of importance," said Friend Hopper. The servant soon returned and conducted him to the chamber. The nobleman appeared surprised that a stranger, in a plain Quaker costume, should thus intrude upon his luxurious privacy. When he heard his errand he blushed deeply, and frankly admitted the truth of the girl's statement. His benevolent visitor took the opportunity to "bear testimony" against the selfishness and sin of profligacy. He did it in such a kind and fatherly manner that the young man's heart was touched. He excused himself by saying that he would not have tampered with the girl if he had known her to be virtuous. "I have done many wrong things," said he, "but, thank God! no betrayal of confiding innocence weighs on my conscience. I have always considered it the basest act of which man is capable." The imprisonment of the poor girl, and the forlorn situation in which she had been found, distressed him greatly.

When Friend Hopper represented that the silk had been stolen for his sake, that the girl had thereby lost employment, and was obliged to return to her distant home to avoid the danger of exposure, he took out a fifty-dollar note and offered to pay her expenses.

"Nay," said Isaac, "thou art a very rich man, I presume. I see in thy hand a large roll of such notes. She is the daughter of a poor widow, and thou hast been the means of doing her great injury. Give me another."

Lord Henry handed him another fifty-dollar note and smiled as he said: "You understand your business well. But you have acted nobly, and I reverence you for it. If you ever visit England come to see me. I will give you a cordial welcome and treat you like a nobleman."

"Farewell, friend," replied the Quaker, "though much to blame in this affair, thou, too, hast behaved nobly. M[illegible]"

When the girl was arrested she had sufficent presence of mind to assume a false name, and by that means her true name had been kept out of the newspapers. "I did this," said she, "for my poor mother's sake." With the money given by Lord Stuart, the silk was paid for, and she was sent home to her mother well provided with clothing. Her name and place of residence forever remained a secret in the breast of her noble benefactor.

Years after these events transpired, a lady called at Friend Hopper's house, and asked to see him. When he entered the room he found a handsomely-dressed young matron, with a blooming boy of 5 or 6 years old. She rose quickly to meet him, and her voice choked as she said, "Friend Hopper, do you know me?" He replied that he did not. She fixed her tearful eyes upon him and said: "You once helped me when in great distress." But the good missionary had helped too many in distress to be able to recollect her without more precise information. With a tremulous voice she bade her son go into the next room for a few moments; then, dropping on her knees, she hid her face in his lap and sobbed out:

"I am the girl that stole the silk. Oh! where should I now be if it had not been for you?"

When her emotion was somewhat calmed, she told him that she had married a highly respectable man, a native of his own State. Being on a visit to Friend Hopper's vicinity, she had again and again passed his dwelling, looking wistfully at the windows to catch a sight of him, but when she attempted to enter, her courage failed.

"Yes, I must return home to-morrow," said she, "and I could not go away without once more seeing and thanking him who saved me from ruin." She recalled her little boy, and said to him: "Look at that gentleman, and remember him well, for he was the best friend your mother ever had." With an earnest invitation to visit her happy home, and a fervent "God bless you!" she bade her benefactor farewell.

A PRETTY AND TOUCHING STORY.

Little Tiny Leigh came in and stood on tiptoe by the escritoire where Aunt Sue sat writing. As she did so, a very small rose-bud of a month made itself apparent above the line of the desk at auntie's right, and a piping little voice, proceeding from it, demanded, "Vat you doin,' auntie?"

"Writing letters," responded auntie, who with a bunch of envelopes and a quire of paper before her, was very deep in the business indeed. Then a fat dimpled finger stole cautiously up and touched a finished pile.

"One, two, free, four, amen!" counted Tiny, who always cherished the belief that "amen" stood for a full stop; and made use of it accordingly.

"Vat for you write letters, auntie?"

"O, to send to my friends," replied auntie, bending over her work, and speaking in a voice that seemed to issue from her eyebrows.

"Vere is your friends?" persevered the child.

"Everywhere," said auntie, who happened to be writing that word at the moment.

"Does letters go ev'ywhere?"

"Yes," said aunty again, who by this time was in the very heart of a brilliant description, and did not know in the least what she was talking about.

"How does letters go?" pursued Tiny. But auntie did not hear her. "How does letters go?" urged she again, this time touching her elbow by way of experiment. The experiment, so far as auntie was concerned, resulted in a bold, upward stroke, at an acute angle with the last 'hair line,' and she looked up really out of patience at last.

"O Tiny," said she "what a little mis——" but she stopped suddenly. There was such a look of appeal in the soft blue eyes fixed anxiously upon her, that she could not find it in her heart to visit any indignation on that small golden head, so she only kissed the rosy mouth and said, "auntie is very busy just now, darling, and you must not disturb her. Another day she will talk to you just as much as ever you wish. Here!" added she, seeing the look of disappointment that stole over the sunny face; "see! I will make a letter of you and send you to mamma."

So she took a postage stamp out of her little drawer and parting the flossy curls pasted it right in the centre of Tiny's smooth, white forehead.

"I don't know how letters goes," said the baby girl, chuckling delightedly "Does they fly?"

"Letters don't 'goes,'" said Auntie, laughing; they go through the post-office. Now run along and put yourself in a post-office somewhere, and mamma will be sure to find you."

"O, yes! I know, I saw it—the posoffis—me and mamma—one day. It's down the corner and yound the ab'nue!"

So she trotted off across the broad library floor, out into the hall, and Aunt Sue, having heard the door close behind her, returned to her writing.

Out in the hall Tiny stood still. A great thought came to her. "I will go to papa," said she to herself. Papa was gone away. He had been gone, O, such a long, long time! She could just remember faintly, like a dream soft, loving, brown eyes, and a gentle voice that called her "little daughter." Then the room was very dark one time, a strange, black box, covered with flowers, was carried out at the door, and papa has never come back any more. Never once though she had run all through the house and garden crying out, "I want papa!" many a day. But now she could go to him. They told her he was gone to God. But was she not a letter now, and had not Auntie said that letters could go every where? And if she could only get into the 'posoffis,' papa would be sure to find her. Yes, she would go to papa! There stood the hat-rack, with her jockey hanging upon it; so with all her strength she pushed forward one of the great hall chairs, climbed up, and secured her hat, put it on hindside foremost—poor little Tiny! and opening the door went out into the busy street.

Twenty minutes afteward Aunt Sue, having finished her letters, crossed the hall and noticed the displaced chair and missing jockey, and wandered where the child could be. At that very moment the clerk at the post-office heard a little piping voice, and looking down, saw a strange sight—a tiny creature no more than three years old, it seemed, with jockey hat awry, its sweeping plume tangled with golden curls, a postage stamp shining conspicuously in the centre of a polished forehead, and wistful blue eys turned up to him, glistening with a great hope.

"I want to go to papa," said the voice.

The clerk smiled. "Where is your papa?" asked he.

"Gone to God," said Tiny, solemnly.

The smile died out. They had sent many odd parcels to strange directions through that office, but never one to that address, thought the clerk.

But at that moment a blustering business man, bound on the redress of some grievance, pressed forward and brushed her aside; she was drawn into the current of people, passing in at one door and out at another, and before she could say another word found herself in the street again.

There she stood irresolute. Her heart ached with disappointment, the passers-by jostled and bewildered her; she began to be afraid, and her eyes filled with tears. Suddenly there was a great outcry. The frightened crowd fled into doorways. A pair of runaway horses came dashing down the street. The people on the crossing rushed to the sidewalk. No one noticed an unprotected little one standing there with blanched face, and eyes wild with terror; no one heard a feeble, wailing cry. A great, burly boy with a basket on his arm, pressing forward in blind speed, found something in his pathway and bore it down. Then it was all over. The mad horses were down the street and far away. The relieved pedestrians came out from their places of refuge. Only one did not "move on."

A little, lifeless figure, with wide-open blue eyes, long, soft, golden curls sweeping the curbstone, and dimpled hands thrown out, lay where they had fallen. The jocky hat had rolled from her head, its white feather was draggled in the dust, but the postage stamp still clung to the shining forehead. The crowd looking on, noted it with cautious eyes. It had done its work well. Ah me! the little "letter" had gone safely to papa, and to God.

Poking Fun at a Railroad.

Mr. Derrick Dood writes as follows to the Washington Capital about the branch railroad between Baltimore and the Capital:

But about this railroad. Of course I want it abolished; every one does. The reckless velocity with which the trains are run between here and Baltimore is absolutely frightful. I admit I was delighted years ago, when this road was established, because I thought we had got rid of the old rickety and dangerously fast stage coaches, but the speed at which they are beginning to run the trains on this road is worse yet. Now, every one knows that Baltimore is forty miles from Washington, if it is an inch, and three days and a half is plenty quick enough for the trip, but the managers have already reduced the schedule time to three days and four hours, and what with making the engine fires too hot, and racing with cows along the road, and all that, the conductors are even cutting that time down.

Why, it was only the other day, on the down trip, we happened to spy old Simms' mule, about two miles out of town. What should the reckless wretch of an engineer do but clap on full steam and race every foot of the way into the district!

We didn't exactly pass the mule, but we caught up with him twice, and came into the depot neck and neck—and which was puffing the most the mule or the engine, you couldn't have told to save your life. Now it was very exciting, and all that, I know, but I hadn't purchased an accident ticket, and I don't believe the other four passengers had, either. This is all wrong, Mr. Editor—all wrong.

And then on another occasion, I remember, we came within a hair's breadth of having a very serious accident. The engineer had gotten off to snow-ball a chipmunk, and the conductor was minding a young widow's baby for her—the result was that the train happened to get on a down grade, and we started off at a terrible speed, every bit of four miles an hour, I should think. We were just half a mile above the Annapolis junction, and the first thing we knew—there being no whistle to wake up the switch-tender—we were turned off into the Annapolis road, and went down the track at full speed. Imagine our consternation, when at this moment we heard the whistle, not a half a mile ahead of us, of the Annapolis up train. We were paralyzed with terror! There were two trains on the same track approaching each other at the dreadful speed just mentioned. Evidently our time had come! In a few short hours the engines would meet, and then—destruction! With great presence of mind a minister on board organized a prayer meeting. Pale, but calm, the doomed band of passengers sat, and though with the very shadow of death upon them raised their voices in a parting hymn.

"Send for the baggage master," said a young man, with a sad smile. "Why?" was asked. Because we are all about to pass in our checks."

Everybody wept. From the rear platform we could see the miserable engineer straining every nerve to catch up, but he had tight boots on, and didn't gain anything to speak of.

At this moment a ray of hope dawned upon us. I had just finished writing my will on the back of a visiting card, when I observed a lady in the act of detaching her bustle. Placing the article which was composed of eight hundred Capitals and a hair mattress—under her arm, the heroine marched through the car. We followed her anxiously.

She climbed up on the tender and then over the engine. It was very interesting and thrilling to see her climbing over the wheels and brass things on her way to the cow-catcher. It reminded me of a country girl getting over a wire fence. But never mind about that now. Let me see where I was—oh, yes, on the cow catcher. Holding on by the cross bars with one hand, the noble maiden tied the bustle on the sharp prow with the other.

You can imagine the result. In the course of the afternoon the collision came off. Protected by the bustle, the engine received a gentle bump, and we were saved!

I took up a collection for the woman on the spot. I always take up a collection on such occasions—always. There is nothing mean about me. I suppose you have noticed my clothes?

REFERRING to one of Hartranft's letters to Yerkes, which form an irrefragible chain of evidence proving the Auditor General guilty of complicity with Mackey and Yerkes in stock-gambling operations carried on with State moneys, our afternoon Ring contemporary complains that the date as published is inaccurate. The letter was written in 1869, it says, while the printed date is 1871. N'importe. As Mr. Toots would say, "it's of no consequence." According to the affidavit of Yerkes, sworn to before Alderman Dougherty, who attests its genuineness, that unfortuate broker paid "to J. F. Hartranft, Auditor General, on the 10th day of December, 1870, the sum of $2,700, which sum was derived from profits on purchases of loans of the Commonwealth and sales of the same to the Sinking Fund, which sale was made on the 29th day of April 1870."

There is other evidence going to General Hartranft made that [illegible] appeal for $8,700 on December 31, 1869, or a later date. But why do the Ring champions omit "the weightier matters of the law," and quibble about unimportant details? They cannot refute even the least of the charges against Hartranft, and do not try. They content themselves with telling their readers that the inculpated officials are spotless gentlemen, who are the victims of wicked libels.

Here is one item of evidence alone, which substantiated as it is by the books of Yerkes, would convict both Mackey and Hartranft before a jury of criminal malfeasance in office. It is another affidavit of Yerkes, which only recently came to light, and will be found in another column of this paper.

Let it be noted that this testimony, while referring chiefly to Mackey, says explicitly that the profit of their joint nefarious transactions were divided between Yerkes, Mackey, and Hartranft, and that Yerkes' sworn statements are abundantly substantiated.—The Press.

Good Advice for Senator Wilson and Gen. Hawley.

From The Philadelphia Press (Grant).

A word or two to those gentleman who are coming to Pennsylvania to speak for the Republican party. Would Senator Wilson and Gen. Hawley and others like them advocate the election to the highest offices of their States, of men who were confessedly incompetent, and who had been proven guilty of the grossest malfeasance in office? Senator Wilson is an honest man, and Gen. Hawley has, year after year, had to fight the imported repeaters and ruffians of Tammany. Will these two men lend themselves and their great influence to the corruptionists of Pennsylvania, and aid in the disgrace of the Republican party and the State? We tell them plainly, that if they come here and advocate the election of Hartranft and Allen, they will put themselves in the place of the apologists of Tammany, and injure irreparably the cause of President Grant. It is humiliating enough to see some of our own good men, under a mistaken sense of duty, give their aid to the Treasury Ring, without having our candidate for Vice-President and "the Gentleman in American politics" contribute to the perpetuation of corruption in the second State of the American Union.

—Michael Nixon, living a few miles from Columbus, murdered his wife last Friday by shooting her three times through the head. He then placed the muzzle of the revolver in his mouth and blew out his branes. They had lived unhappily for several years.

—A mysterious murder was committed last Saturday night near Road House Station, Greene county, Ill. A farmer, named Scott, not returning from work at the usual time in the evening, was sought by his wife, who found him dead in a field, with a bullet hole through his brain. No one has yet been arrested, but a neighbor who was known to have a grudge against Scott is said to be missing and is suspected of the crime.

—It requires a good deal of skill and good taste to write a neat puff for an undertaker. A newspaper editor in Council Bluffs says: "Since we have to use coffins, we prefer those which Riley furnishes. We took a view of his supply of the commodity yesterday afternoon. His stock would even carry the city pretty well through an average stage of cholera. Besides these, he has a good supply of picture frames"—suitable for the portraits of the deceased, we suppose.

HARTRANFT in PHILADELPHIA.

At a Reform meeting held last week, William A. Frazier, esq., summed up the Hartranft campaign as follows:

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I am a Liberal Republican advocating the election of Charles R. Buckalew to the Governorship of Pennsylvania, because his opponent, J. F. Hartranft, is criminally corrupt; because he has been the associate of criminals and thieves; because he shared the ill-gotten gains of those who are either expiating their crimes in the penitentiary or are fugitives from justice; because he has violated alike his oath of office and the laws of the Commonwealth in using $681,000 of the public funds of the State in the purchase of stocks for personal profit, when both the law and his oath required that those same funds should be "for the use of the Commonwealth."

In diverting these public funds for private purposes he has made himself liable to imprisonment upon a similar bill of indictment to that which sent City Treasurer Marcer to Cherry Hill. I am opposed to the election of Mr. Hartranft because he has either ignorantly or corruptly permitted millions of dollars, justly due, to escape from the treasury. If corruptly, that debars him; if ignorantly, then he insults the intelligence of the community by asking them to place him in a position where a much greater degree of intelligence is requisite than in the office he now holds.

Gentlemen, be not deceived; the question at the October election is not whether Greeley or Grant shall be President; it is whether the corrupt cabal, Cameron, Hartranft and Mackey, shall continue to exercise imperial power in Pennsylvania. The question to be settled in October is, whether the people of this Commonwealth prefer that purity and integrity and capability shall exist among those holding high public office, or vice and dishonesty and criminal incapacity shall continue until we become a by-word of reproach with the people of the nation.

Fellow citizens, if John F. Hartranft is elected Governor of Pennsylvania then the day is at hand when it will be no longer considered criminal to be the receiver of stolen goods, but something rather to be commended, something deserving of political preferment. The election of Hartranft will be succeeded by that of Simon Cameron to the Senate of the United States, a man who has done more to debauch the public morals of the people of this State and nation than perhaps any other living person; a man who, as an official, aye, as a Cabinet officer, had the brand of "thief" recorded against him; a man driven in disgrace from the Cabinet of Abraham Lincoln; a man who openly pollutes every principle of common morality by defiantly buying his way into the Senate of the United States, will again, by the Legislature he has debauched, be made Senator.

The re-election of Robert W. Mackey as Treasurer will also follow that of Hartranft, and the question simply is whether these—our Tweed, Connolly and Ingersoll—shall continue in high public places or be ignominious driven from power like their New York prototypes were a year ago. I cannot doubt the result. There is not a mercantile house in this city but is a unit against the Hartranft dynasty. Business houses school districts, [illegible] comes to us at our headquarters the cheering news that political virtue and integrity are to be rewarded, and vice and brutality punished. I ask you, my fellow citizens of the twenty-ninth ward, to join in swelling the rising tide that will elect Buckalew by thirty-thousand majority.

Fellow-citizens, it seems superfluous to repeat the list of criminal accusations with which General Hartranft, as Auditor General, stands charged. His due bill to George O. Evans for $7,000, given just three years after the State agent had pocketed $300,000 of the people's money, convicts him of complicity with that distinguished collector of war claims. This speculating with State funds, to the extent of $800,000, and sharing the profits with the same broker that Marcer unfortunately dealt with, makes him as guilty as our late City Treasury; and in addition to these he has permitted the Northern Central Railroad, owned mostly by Simon Cameron, to escape the payment of a quarter of a million dollars of taxation. As he has admitted all the other charges against him, he will not deny this; but, with all these charges of malfeasance against him, still hopes to be made Governor of Pennsylvania, not by the honest votes of the people, but by the force of fraud in this city.

—There is a good deal of tragedy in the word "lost" even when we do not use it in its theological sense. "Child lost" is a phrase painfully suggestive, nor is it pleasant for a wife to lose her husband. Yet nothing is more common than mysterious disappearances. The English police during 1870 were called upon for assistance in the cases of 5,753 lost persons, and of these 3,734 were under ten years of age. The police found and restored 2,619 children and 446 adults; 62 adults committed suicide; and at the close of the year four children and 65 adults were still missing. It will be noticed that the police were much more successful in finding children than adults, which leads to the suspicion that a good many of the latter were not particularly desirous of being found, having their own reasons for remaining "lost." Some of them still missing at the time of making up the report may ultimately be found, but, of course, there must be some who will never be heard of.

The Beaver Argus.

J. WEYAND, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Beaver, Pa., Sept. 18th, 1872.

GOVERNOR Curtin's political status has been finally ascertained. He is a Liberal Republican, and has been placed before the voters of Pennsylvania as a candidate for Delegate at Large to the constitutional convention, by the Liberal Republican State Committee. An address to the people of the State, signed by the committee referred to, will be found in another column of the ARGUS.—An additional article copied from Forney's Press, and headed "Curtin Against the Ring," is also copied and will be seen in another column. The Grant Republicans of Centre county had previously and unsolicited by him, conferred the nomination for Congress upon him. This nomination he has declined in a public letter; his acceptance as a Liberal Republican candidate for the Constitutional Convention, and his election is certain. It is understood that there is a vacancy, by resignation in the Democratic ticket for Delegate at Large to the Constitutional Convention.—Governor Curtin's name will doubtless fill this vacancy. This accession to the Liberal ranks will equal ten thous. and votes, and makes Hartranft's defeat doubly sure.

MAJ. GEN. J. B. SWEITZER, a gallant and accomplished soldier was some time ago appointed Chief Marshall of the Soldier's gathering to be held at Pittsburgh, this week. This appointment did not suit the Treasury Ring; hence they chopped off Sweitzer's head, and arranged the programme so that Hartranft would be in command. This is evidently intended to revive his waning prospects, but it will fail in its purpose, for the people have made up their minds that official corruption shall not be rewarded by higher honors.

WE wish every reader of the ARGUS to give the article on one of its inside pages this week, headed "Hartranft's guilt," a careful study. It is copied from Forney's Press the most effective Grant paper in Pennsylvania and gives the letters, figures and affidavits touching Hartranft's speculations with the State funds, in so direct a manner, that none will fail to understand them. The man who can vote for Hartranft after this expose would have no compunctions of conscience in voting for William M. Tweed for any office to which he might aspire.

Burkholder and Mylin, both of whom are pledged to oppose the re-election of Senator Cameron and State Treasury Mackey, are nominated for the legislature. This is the most severe blow that the ring has received in this campaign. In Lancaster county they have hitherto, by cunning manipulation of the delegate elections and the free use of money, generally succeeded in securing members of the legislature in their interest. But this time they were compelled to confront a people who are thoroughly aroused, and every man who was suspected of a taint of Cameronism has been defeated. This delegate election in Lancaster county is one of the most significant and encouraging signs in Pennsylvania. It shows that the insolent power of the Cameron ring is fast melting under the indignation of a people who have become aroused to the defence of their true interests and their honor. —Patriot

WE have yet to see any respectable newspaper in Pennsylvania, or hear any reputable orator, assume that Charles R. Buckalew is a dishonest or untruthful man. In fact both of these classes of public teachers tacitly admit that his private habits and public character are above reproach. Not only this, but his most violent political opponents are willing to agree that he is a liberal, able, experienced statesman, and a gentleman who would fill the Gubernatorial chair with wisdom, dignity, and benefit to the State.

On the other hand, General Hartranft, is regarded by at least three-fourths of the people of the State as loose in his official transactions. They believe that he was either a principal in the Evans fraud himself or too stupid to detect that villain and his confederates while they were prowling through the vaults of the State Treasury. They believe that while Auditor General of the State he either gambled with State stocks himself or permitted others to do so, and shared the profits with them. They do not know him to be an able man, and they have a hundred reasons for believing that he is not honest either.

With these two candidates before them and their public characters thus briefly stated, can money, party, or free dinners, induce a majority of the honest voters of the county to cast their ballots for the bad and against the good man? We will not believe they will until we see it.

WE are told on good authority that in a speech made by Senator Rutan in Rochester a few evenings ago, he stated that "Senator Wallace, Mr. Buckalew and every democratic Senator voted for the bill continuing General Hartranft as Auditor General." He made this statement to show that Wallace and Buckalew and all the Democratic Senators had the utmost confidence in Hartranft up until the latter became a candidate against one of their number for Governor. That is Mr. Rutan's story; now look at Senator Wallace's. In a speech made in Greensburg, a few nights ago Senator Wallace said:

It is charged that I assented to and voted for the bill extending the official term of Gen. Hartranft as Auditor General. I neither voted for nor assented to it. It was passed on a Monday night—notoriously the hour at which all snakes in legislative circles are brought forth—and was passed through the Senate in the absence of both Mr. Buckalew and myself. He was absent in attendance on his duties on the M'Clure-Gray committee and I was at my home at court. If I had been present I would have voted against it, for I have always spoken and voted against the policy of extending the official term of any incumbent of an elective office. I have always regarded it as a wrong upon the people and fruitful of corrupt and demoralizing tendency.

We thus leave Mr. Rutan just where his ill-considered statement puts him. Will a man who is so regardless of the truth make a faithful Senator? We think not.

THE returns from Maine now cover perhaps three-fourths of the vote.—From the remote regions to the north, the news comes slowly; but we may fairly estimate our yesterday's statement of the result as at any rate within a few hundred of the exact figures. It is possible that the majority may rise to a hundred or two above sixteen thousand;—it can hardly fall many hundreds below.—The reduction from the majority in 1868 may therefore be reckoned as about 3,500. That majority, as The World judiciously points out, was attained in defiance of the Administration hostility;—the present reduction has been accomplished in defiance of the most unscrupulous Administration support. If with the whole power of the National Government against it, the Grant ticket could get nearly 20,000 majority in 1868, and with the whole power of the National Government for it can only get 16,000 majority in 1872, it is plain enough that the drift against Grant is much more than the mere difference in the figures would indicate.—We must make allowance, besides, for the extreme difficulty with which men are brought to the polls in a contest known to be hopeless, and in the face of a proscriptive public sentiment among their old associates, only that other States may have the moral effect of their votes. Nor must it be forgotten that many have made the mistake of supposing that their vote now had nothing to do with the Presidency, and that there was no need for them to cut loose from the regular Republican organization till November. Yet, in spite of all these facts, the Grant managers, with Post-offices, Custom-houses, Navy-yard, Internal Revenue and all other Federal influence to back them, have fallen 3,500 short of what they were able to do against these same influences, four years ago.

After the North Carolina election, (which we fairly carried,) The Tribune pointed the Liberals to their next work, with the phrase which the Grant journals are recalling, "And now for Maine." We too are glad to recall the phrase. We hold up the results in Maine for inspiration and assurance, as we next turn with confidence now well nigh absolute, to Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Just consider the facts:

[illegible] count them at only the same precise percentage. The Pennsylvania election in October 1868, was carried for the Grant State ticket by 9,677 majority. A change of five thousand votes would have defeated Hartranft, then running for Auditor-General.—Five thousand votes are barely one-and-a-half per cent of the 331,416 Republican votes cast at that time. A change of less than one per cent would have defeated Gov. Geary in 1869, his majority being only 4,596. In other words;—with less than one-third the change in Pennsylvania which Monday's election shows in Maine, we shall sweep the Keystone State. Who doubts that the change will be greater instead of less?

The Indiana election in October, 1868, was carried by the Republicans by less than 1,000 majority for Gov. Baker. A change of one third of one per cent would have wiped out this majority. In 1870 the Democrats carried the State by 2,558 majority.

In New-York the last important election carried by the Republicans was in 1866, when Gov. Fenton was elected by 13,789 majority over Hoffman. A change of less than two per cent of the 366,615 votes cast for Fenton would have given the State to Hoffman.

We not do pursue the examination in detail. The same percentage will give us Alabama, California, and Connecticut, and these added to the solid Democratic column will carry us triumphantly through. Liberal Republicans!—let Maine be your inspiration. She shows that success is within your grasp. Will you permit it to escape you?—N. Y. Tribune Sept. 12th.

THE four prominent figures in our State contest this year are Cameron, Hartranft, Buckalew and Curtin. Cameron and Hartranft are on one side—Buckalew and Curtin on the other. The two former represent the worst elements in our politics; the two latter the best. Voters! of Beaver county! choose ye between these men and the principles they embody,

THOUSANDS upon thousands of dollars are annually paid out of the State Treasury to George Bergner of Harrisburg "for stationery," the man who publishes Cameron's organ at the State capital. Repeated efforts have been made recently to obtain access to his bills, but General Hartranft has ordered his clerks to not allow them to be seen by any person at the present time. From the fact that Bergner has recently became a millionare, together with this conduct of the Auditor General, the people are led to suppose that they have been bled in this "stationery" matter to an outrageous extent. Defrauded or not defrauded will the voters of the State elect a man for Governor, who refuses to let them see accounts in which they are personally interested, and which they are morally certain carry frauds upon their face?

◆

HERE are a few interrogations which the people of the State are called upon to investigate. Voters of Pennsylvania give them a patient and thorough investigation before depositing your ballot at the October election. Passing them by, or standing mute while realizing their import, will not only imperil your own interests, but your conduct may be the means of dealing the reputation of your State a blow from which it may not recover during your life time. These are the questions:

1. Is the practice of the Mackey-Ring legitimate of lending the cash assets of the Treasury—amounting to millions—to unknown bankers and brokers, some of which are bankrupt, and one of whom is a convict?

2. Do men of business—the faithful executors of public and private trusts—approve of the Auditor General and State Treasurer purchasing State securities at a depreciation and selling them to the Sinking Fund at an advance, they and their broker sharing the difference as their profits?

3. Did the State Treasurer, immediately before his election the second time, borrow for his private use from one of the State depositories $20,000, and afterward repay it by a Treasury draft on the public funds? If yes, is this approved of?

4. Is it not a badge of fraud that all the accounts between the broker (since convict) and financial officers of the State were kept either in fictitious names, or, what is equivalent, in reversed initials?

5. Is it consitent with the proper discharge of duty for accounting officers with small salaries to speculate to enormous amounts in stocks during their whole term of office—Mackey to the amount of $146,000 in two months, and Hartranft of $681,000 in less than two years?

6. Is it part of the function of a Controller or Auditor General to use official information for ends of private gain to claim taxation on corporate capital in order to depress the stock, and, that failing, to speculate on a rise, as Hartranft did in the case of the Oil Creek Railroad.

7. Was or was not the fraud on the City Treasury of which Marcer and Yerkes have been convicted facilitated, if not promoted, by the countenance given by the State authorities? and did it not result in a deficit in the State Treasury which, if at all, was made up from outside resources?

8. Did not Mackey and Hartranft recommend the pardon of Charles T. Yerkes, leaving the victim Marcer without intercession? and has not the pardon been thus far refused, while assassins of Revenue Collectors have been discharged without stint?

9. Is not the refusal of the Governor to pardon these parties a concessions to an aroused public opinion, which condemns the whole transaction and all the parties to it—principals and accessories—those convicted and those at liberty.

10. Will not the election of John F. Hartranft as Governor of Pennsylva-

11. In conclusion, if in these questions there is an assumption of any matter of fact which either does not exist or is over-stated, the respondents are begged to point it out.

THAT was a good hit made by General Thomas Ewing in a late speech, at St. Clairsville, Ohio. He said this campaign was an extraordinary one. We Democrats find ourselves in this campaign co-operating with Sumner, Trumbull, Schurz, Gratz Brown, General Brinkerhoff, General Banks, and supporting even Horace Greeley for president; while the Republicans are in close affiliation with Robert Toombs, Henry A. Wise, Blanton Duncan, the guerrilla Mosby, and Brick Pomeroy. The marked difference, however, between these new affiliations of the two parties, is that we are associated with the heads of the Republican party and they with the tails of ours. We are affiliating with their corps commanders, and they with our bummers.

A CORRESPONDENT of Forney's Press recently called at the Auditor General's office and endeavored to obtain a copy of the lists of banks, brokers, and other persons with whom the people's money is deposited, but was refused it. He was not even suffered to make a few memoranda from the tell-tale record, though the law requires that it shall be open for the inspection of the citizens. Is there not something wrong in the Auditor General's office?

HARTRANFT opposed the soldier's Homestead bill, which would have enabled our returned volunteers to transfer their land warrants. He wants the remainder of the public domain to be voted away in the land grants to railway corporations.

Senator Casserly's Views.

The Hon. Eugene Casserly, Senator from California, thus writes from Washington to a friend in San Francisco. The letter is published in the Herald of that city:

"WASHINGTON, August 9, 1872.

DEAR COLONEL: I see they have got you to the front once more, and for a great battle. This time I really think we will succeed. This is the judgment of our most judicious men all over the country. In eight States, no small ones either, the election is but a form—a mere question of the size of the majority. These are New York, Missouri, Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Texas, Tennessee, Georgia. These States will give majority for Greeley and Brown, ranging from 25,000 to 50,000 and upwards. It would puzzle any man to day to name as many States of the same or like magnitude that are certain for Grant. This gives us a capital of 110 electoral votes to start with, leaving us but fifty-two more to get to have the Electoral college. Where shall we get them? The following States I regard as being sufficiently certain for Greeley and Brown: West Virginia, Alabama, Delaware, Arkansas Connecticut, Indiana—43.

For the following States our chances are to-day twenty per cent. better than theirs: New Hampshire, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Illinois—72.

This I think a fair, indeed, rather an under statement of the contest, leaving out entirely the Pacific coast of which you are a better judge. It takes no account of States that are debatable, such as Louisiana, 7; Ohio, 22, Florida, 3 (which we carried for Lieutenant-Governor at the last election;) Wisconsin, 10; Nebraska, 3.

Constitutional Convention.

Governor Curtin Nominated by the Liberals.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

The Liberal Republican State Committee have formally nominated Hon. Andrew G. Curtin as a candidate for delegat at large to the Constitutional Convention. In doing so we need not present any elaborate commendation of the choice we have made. Had the preferences of the people prevailed with the political managers, who have long ruled the State for the attainment of selfish ends, his name would have been first on the list of nominations for the responsible position. He would have been presented, not as a partisan, but as a patriot who has shed the brightest lustre upon the annals of our Commonwealth.

A generation has passed away since our fundamental law has been revised by the sovereign power that created it, and our progress has been marked in all that contributes to prosperity and greatness. The rapid growth and advancement of our industry, its varied and multiplied channels of production, and the vast business interests reared upon the wealth it has developed have made us outgrow the Constitution of our fathers.

But to revise it in the interest of public integrity and permanent prosperity, the most experienced and faithful of our statesmen should be charged with the task. Among these, Andrew G. Curtin stands confessedly eminent, and he would bring to the important work a measure of devotion to the people of the Commonwealth that few could equal and none surpass.

During six years of sorest trial to the State and Nation he filled our executive chair. He was met with responsibilities which severely tested his intelligence and his patriotism, but he met every public want, discharged every public duty, and retired with the formal approval of all parties for his enlightened and successful administration and beloved as the "soldiers' friend.

No man in our great State is more familiar with our people; with our diversified and growing interests; with the new necessities created by a life-time of progress; and none can bring to the amendment of our constitution more practical wisdom or greater fidelity.

Assured that the people of the State, without regard to political differences, desire his services, we present his name as a candidate, and we ask for him the earnest support of all who believe him most competent and deserving, with abiding confidence that he will be triumphantly chosen.

CURTIN TO THE FRONT.

The determination of the Liberals to disregard party preference to their nominations has nowhere been more significantly expressed than in Pennsylvania. Their nomination of Andrew G. Curtin, "The Soldier's Friend," as delegate-at-large to the Constitutional Convention, is just such an illustration of that spirit as we might expect. It is a choice of great wisdom, and its acceptance by ex-Gov. Curtin must be an assurance of the success of the ticket. Nowhere has the tyranny and corruption of this Administration been more severely felt than in Pennsylvania; and to no man in that State could the eyes of the people be more readily turned for relief and comfort than to Andrew G. Curtin, the blameless patriot and gratefully-remembered War Governor. With Buckalew at the head of the State ticket and Curtin leading the delegates to the Constitutional Convention, the Liberals of Pennsylvania have completed a list of nominations which will command the respect of the whole country, and will never know defeat. "Andy Curtin," as the Pennsylvanians love to call their favorite Governor, is a tower of strength to any party; all of the embassies which have gone over the seas to beg and implore his adhesion to the Grant combination have returned empty-handed. He could naturally go nowhere else than to the Liberal camp.

The address of the Pennsylvania Liberals, which is signed by some of the best names in Pennsylvania politics, is a stirring document. Taken with the nomination of Curtin, it alarms the souls of the Grant leaders. Even The Press, a devoted Grant organ, which publishes the document in full, is compelled to say that the selection of Curtin by the Liberals aggravates the misfortunes of the Republicans; and that the Liberal Address is signed by men whom the Republican party cannot afford to lose. Its brief biographical sketches of the signers of the address are like a lamentation over lost riches. If we needed any testimony to the dignity and strength of the Liberal movement in Pennsylvania, we should find it in the comments of The Press, the editor of which knows the men to whose value he so reluctantly testifies.

And now, citizens of "the State prayer-founded!" you have the tickets, and the men that make them, before you. On one side stand foremost Simon Cameron and J. F. Hartranft; on the other Charles R. Buckalew and Andrew G. Curtin. Choose ye now whom you will honor and trust!—N. Y. Tribune.

CURTIN AGAINST THE RING.

From Forney's Press, (Grant).

Elsewhere will be found the address of the Liberal Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania, nominating Hon. Andrew G. Curtin as the candidate for Delegate-at-large to the Constitutional Convention, and from the tone of this address we assume that his acceptance of this important post is assured. Had the wishes of the people of our great State prevailed in the Republican State Convention which forced the offensive nominations of Hartranft and Allen, Governor Curtin would have been nominated to the post for which the Liberal Republican State Committee has now formally named him; but the despotic dictates of Simon Cameron prevailed, and the Republicans lost the great opportunity. Had the wishes of the good men of that convention been consulted, Andrew G. Curtin would now be at the head of our State ticket, and the people would have regarded it as a tribute due alike to his own great services during the war and to themselves. This nomination of the Liberal Republican State Committee must be accepted in no sense as a party preference. Its significance may be better understood by reference to the signers of the address. They are a remarkable indication of the great strength of the movement in this State against that portion of the State ticket which has been forced upon the Republican people of Pennsylvania. Among the names honored and known in the Republican party, we desire especially to enumerate Alexander K. McClure, one of the earliest and ablest of the Republican leaders; William J. Gillingham, one of the most intrepid and honest men in Philadelphia; William H. Ruddiman, a lawyer accepted as among the best members of the Philadelphia bar; Henry L. Cake, a Representative in Congress for two terms from the Schuylkill and Lebanon district, who did more to reverse the Democratic majority in that section than any other man of his age; Lambert Thomas, a leading Republican merchant; H. Tiedeman, a prominent German Republican; Henry E. Wallace, editor of the Legal Intelligencer; Edwin T. Chase, an influential member of the Philadelphia bar; George Wilie, who served his constituents in the Legislature from this county with singular ability and integrity; J. Kennedy Moorhead, af Alleghany, five times elected to Congress from the Western Republican counties in this State; Dr. James King, Surgeon General during the war; Thomas M. Marshall, the eloquent leader of the young Republicans of the West; Nathaniel Ellmaker, of Lancaster, a leading Republican member of the bar of that great county; E. J. More, well-known in Lehigh county for his talents and ability; George Doray, of Luzerne, elected by a large majority to the Legislature from his county; Gordon F. Mason, former State Senator from Bradford county, and known for his adherence to Republican doctrines; General Thomas L. Jordan, of Lycoming county, known for his devoted patriotism; Hon. Isaac Benson, of Potter, long the leader of the Republican party in that county, who voted for Simon Cameron in 1857 for United States Senator; William Lewis, of Huntingdon, the able leader of the War Democrats in that county, now editor of the Globe; David Barclay, of Armstrong, ex-Republican member of Congress, William Stewart, of Mercer, ex-Republican member of Congress; and Hon. Morrow B. Lowry, of Erie, one of the earliest and most active of Republicans.

These representative men on the list, will show that the Liberal Republican party of Pennsylvania is composed of men that we cannot afford to despise or to underrate, and their presentation of the name of Governor Curtin for the post of delegate-at-large to the constitutional Convention must produce a profound impression upon the public mind.

Another Nut for Hartranft.

The act of 1811 requires the auditor general to report:

"The auditor general shall annually report to the legislature a list of the accounts which remain unsettled, and the reason therefore."—Act of 30th March, 1811, section 50th.

In the Evans case we have seen that Hartranft openly disregarded this law by concealing from the legislature for three years the fact that Evans had collected several thousand dollars belonging to the State.

But more conspicuous still is the fact that for six years he has allowed the corporation of this state to retain millions of dollars belonging to the commonwealth in the shape of taxes and never has reported the facts to the legislature. A committee at the last session of the legislature, composed of three republicans and two [illegible] whatever of taxes due the state, and that the auditor general's office had no information as to the amount due.

In one instance the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad owed the state over $23,000 as a tax on a dividend of $1,100,000 in the Morris and Essex road, yet it was not known at the auditor general's office that such tax was due, although the fact of the dividend having been declared was published in the auditor general's report of the year before.

This amount was promptly paid by the company, the day after the Legislative investigating committee called attention to the subject with the excuse that the blank form for furnishing the report had not been supplied by the auditor general, although it had been demanded. The auditor of the company testified that the amount stood to the credit of the state treasury, and was ready to be paid at any time, and that the return of the tax due had been regularly made to the state treasury.

A few facts will illustrate the immense loss of revenue to the state from the tax on corporations, since General Hartranft took possession of the auditor general's office.

We quote from the report of the sub-committee of last winter, which examined this subject, and that the D. L. and W. R. R., as an example,

1866, Tax on capital stock	$198,951.12
1871, Tax on capital stock -	54,681.11
Loss to the state - - - - -	144,270.01
1866, Tax on gross receipts -	3,728.72
1871, Tax on gross receipts -	1,698.39
Loss to the state - - - - - -	2,030.33

This loss, too, occurred in the face of the fact that in 1866 the receipts of the company were $8,252,416.73, whereas in 1871 they were $11,709,146.97 In a word, the revenue of the company had increased three and a half millions of dollars, and the taxes of the state were increased more than one half

1867, (no report for 1866) Tonnage tax - - - -	$8,177 90
1871, Tonnage tax - - -	1,685 84
Loss to the state - - -	6,492.06

The above facts illustrate why the ring desire the continuance of Hartranft and Allen in office, and why Cameron & Co. are endeavoring to prevent a full and fair investigation. The people are being mercilessly robbed, and they now demand honest officers and a full investigation of the books at Harrisburg.

HARTRANFT'S GUILT.

Incontrovertible Proof of His Corruption.—A Plain, Unvarnished Collection of Evidence Convicting John F. Hartranft of Complicity with Mackey and Yerkes in a Scandalous Misuse of the People's Money —Stock Gambling with State Money as a Margin—How the Loan has been Redeemed—Dividens of Mackey and Hartranft.

From The Philadelphia Press (Grant).

The following affidavits, statements, letters, &c., comprise some of the documentary evidence of Gen. Hartranft's malfeasance. We have thus brought them together and marked each with a letter for the greater convenience of referring to them editorially and for the benefit of such of our readers as desire to investigate impartially the charges against the Ring candidate for Governor:

[A.]

Yerke's Affidavit, Regarding Hartranft's Stock Speculations and Profits on Purchase of Loans of the Commonwealth.

Charles T. Yerkes, jr., of the City of Philadelphia, being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That for some years past he has been acquainted with J. F. Hartranft, Auditor-General of the State of Pennsylvania. That he has at various times purchased and sold stocks of different kinds, and carried the same with money belonging to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which the said J. F. Hartranft has caused to be deposited with the deponent by the State Treasurer. That this deponent did pay to J. F. Hartranft, Auditor-General, on the 10th day of December, 1870, the sum of $2,700, which sum was derived from profits on purchases of loans of the Commonwealth and sales of the same to the Sinking Fund, which sale was made on the 29th day of April, 1870. That said deponent has also paid to said J. F. Hartranft various amounts of money for profits arising from stock speculations with money deposited with this deponent by the State Treasurer at the instance of the said J. F. Hartranft.

C. T. YERKES, jr.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 23d day of December, A. D. 1871.

The extent of these operations will be seen by the following statement of his account with Yerkes for one year—the year preceding Yerke's failure. It will be noticed that the account is kept under initials:

Yerke's Affidavit Respecting Mackey—How the Profits were Divided—the Accounts kept Obscurely.

"Charles T. Yerkes, jr., of Philadelphia, being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say that he has been acquainted with Robert W. Mackey, Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for a number of years past; that he has had stock and other transactions for account of said R. W. Mackey during that time; that said R. W. Mackey has placed money of the Commonwealth in deponent's hands, and it has been understood that interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum should be paid to the said R. W. Mackey for the use of the same. It has also been an understanding between deponent and said R W Mackey that certain portions of this money were to be used in buying up the loans of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of selling to the Sinking Fund of the Commonwealth at a considerable advance above the price paid for the same, and dividing the profits between deponent, R. W. Mackey, and J. F. Hartranft, Auditor General. That this deponent did, on the 29th of April 1870, sell to the Sinking Fund of the Commonwealth $133,000 of the five per cent. loan of the Commonwealth, and $31,000 of the six per ct. loan. That he did, on the 18th day of May, 1870, pay to the said R. W. Mackey, $2,043.42, being his share of the profits arising from the foregoing transactions. That this deponent did, on the 25th of Aug., 1869, pay $677.56 as interest on money deposited with him for account of Commonwealth; on Feb. 9th, 1870, $332 50 for the same reason, and on May 16, 1870, $347.50, making in all $4,347.50, all of which was on account of interest for money of the Commonwealth deposited with this deponent. And this deponent further says that on Oct. 5, 1871, he sent, per Adam's express, $5,000 to said R. W. Mackey, to be delivered to him at Harrisburg, which money was for account of interest on State moneys and profit on stocks which said deponent had purchased and sold for said R. W. Mackey. That the said deponent has also from time to time been particularly cautioned to keep the accounts of money paid said R. W. Mackey for interest and profits on purchase and sale of loans of the Commonwealth in so obscure a manner that it would be difficult, in case of an investigation, for it to be detected. C. T. YERKES, Jr.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 23d day of December A.D. 1871.

Testimony before a Legislative Committe, of E. M. Lewis, President of Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank Philadelphia.

Q. Are you a financial agent of the State of Pennsylvania? A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And were at the time of the purchase of the Pennsylvania loans? A. Yes, Sir: in 1870.

Q. How were they purchased? A. Immediately after the passage of the acts of the 13th and 14th of April, Gen. Hartranft came into the bank and communicated to me his instructions from the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and conferred with me as to the proper way of investing $250,000 in the loans; that amount was afterwards raised to half a million; the total purchases were $459,000, and then they were stopped by the new Treasurer, Gen. Irwin; I had a very full conference with Gen. Hartranft as to the method of making these purchases; the whole matter was committed to my charge: we made special application to the holders of the loans; we had their names for all the registered loans on the books; we were the payers of the interest and issuers of the State loan; but the larger corporations and holders refused to part with their loans; and it became necessary to employ a broker, and I employed Mr. Charles T. Yerkes, jr., as the most competent man, in my judgment, to effect the transaction and purchases, and the one most likely to succeed.

Q. Was he a broker in good standing at that time?

A. Very good; such good standing that since then my bank has loaned him $200,000; in the spring of 1871 he owed us in loans $150,000; I sent for him and asked him to take $50,000 more for six months, which, after some negotiation, he agreed to do; but when we came to draw it in it was drawn for forty-nine thousand and some odd dollars, to keep within the limits of the law; we always found him prompt; in this operation I communicated very freely with Gen. Hartranft, commencing about the 19th of April, 1870, and continued up to the 23d or 24th of May, 1870; I do not know whether the final letters were addressed to Gen. Hartranft or Mr. Irwin, the new State Treasurer, who, in May, as soon as he was inducted into office, interfered in the operation; my letters contain the full story of the method of the transaction, and I have taken off from our transfer officer's check-book the original entries of these purchases—a memoranda of all the checks issued from the 4th of April to the 25th of May, inclusive; these checks are always attested by him, and then sent in to me for my signature; I keep a record of those signatures and a record of what is sent to the Auditor-General. From the record it appears that upon the 21st of April, 1870, we paid for $1,000; on the 22d we paid for $10,000; these were purchases made by Mr. Yerkes, and he was paid a quarter per cent. as brokerage; on the 23d we paid for $14,000; on the 25th, $7,000; on the 29th, $2,000; on the 28th, $25,000; the total up to that time was $59,000; on the 28th we purchased from Drexel & Co. $57,150; we bought those flat, without commission; they were sellers; on the 29th we paid Yerkes for a large lot of loans which he sent to a New-York broker, amounting to $220,550; part of them were coupon and part registered bonds; these bonds bore evidence of belonging to parties outside of Pennsylvania; we had no doubt, and have none now, but what they were the property of persons outside of the State of Pennsylvania until he paid for them; that [illegible] transaction, and up the next purchase was made on the 4th of May—$5,000 at 103, with interest; on the 20th of May we purchased from the Beneficial Saving Institution in Philadelphia $102,000; I think they were purchased at 102; on the 23d of May we made the last purchase of Drexel & Co. of $15,000; the whole amount purchased was $459,000; the only other entries on the transfer officer's check-book, from the 4th of April to the 23d of May, were three reimbursements to James G. King & Sons, New-York, $7,500 of the loan of 1840; to a lady named Read, May 7, $100; to a lady named Smith, April 26, $150—$7,800.

Q. Were these loans purchased at the lowest market rates? A. Yes, Sir.

Q. From your knowledge of the management of the business, was any financial officer of the Commonwealth interested in the profits? A. I don't see that there could have been; Mr. Yerkes was employed by me as the suitable man, without any suggestion from the officers of the Commonwealth; we have a broker to whom we send our ordinary business, but when we have any operation of a kind that requires secrecy, or talent of a particular order, we endeavor to secure the services of some gentleman who is fitted to carry it out in the best way.

Q Mr. Yerkes occupied that position at that time? A. Yes. I think my letters will show that Mr Yerkes went over our books; we don't allow a gentleman to go over our books of the state loan, but we sent for Mr. Yerkes to take off from our books the large holders; he took off the names, and went to the parties and offered to buy their loans; he offered to give them anything they would take; we had the fullest confidence in his integrity at the time.

Gen. Hartranft Speculates in Oil Creek after using His Official Position to Bear the Stock.

By reference to the above accounts of Hartranft with Yerkes, several transactions will be noticed in Oil Creek stock. It appears that Hartranft, having discovered or trumped up an old claim against this company, which he thought would depress the stock, went short in it to a considerable amount. The Attorney-General decided against the claim, and thus took "the starch right out." Hartranft then seems to have ordered another purchase in expectation of a rise. The following letter bears upon these transactions:

AUDITOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Mar. 9, 1870.

DEAR YERKES: Buy as soon as possible 100 shares Oil Creek and Allegheny Valley Railroad, and then have my account, or rather an abstract made from my account, so that I can see the exact loss I have sustained in Oil Creek. Let me have this as soon as you conveniently can. The Attorney-General has given a decision against our settlement on Oil Creek, which takes the starch right out. I don't know what to think about buying Oil Creek as a future investment. If you think well of it you may think that the chances are that it will go up, but as everything else is drooping but little can be expected from Oil Creek. What do you think of Gold? Yours &c., JOHN F. HARTRANFT.

And this testimony before the Legislative Investigating Committee:

[F.]

Q. There is an Oil Creek and Allegheny transaction in which you are said to be mixed up, will you please explain that? A. Mr. Forster, my corporation clerk, at one time brought to me a certain state of facts from which he thought that a claim could be made out against the Company amounting to nearly $100,000; a settlement was made, and before an appeal was had it was submitted to the Attorney-General, and he decided against the claim. It had nothing whatever to do with any stock I held at that time, and the only thing I did have was 100 shares of Oil Creek stock, and that I had had for six months previous.

[G.]

How Hartranft Kept His Broker in Funds—Mackey Asked to do Whatever is necessary.

AUDITOR-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Dec. 21 1869.

DEAR YERKES: Calhoun telegraphed me to-day for money, and I had to give a check for $8,700. which he will present to you to-morrow (22d). I cannot avoid this. I met Mackey here on Monday. He went West in the afternoon, and will not return until Monday. I did not like to ask him again, but I did not think Calhoun would want any mony so soon. I will see you on Saturday, and whatever you want I will do.—I will meet Mackey here on Monday and whatever is necessary I will ask him to do.

J. F. HARTRANFT.

P. S. Will lift Calhoun's check on Saturday, and give you certificate of deposit to that amount. J. F. H.

Commenting upon the above proofs The Press says:

One of the most damaging counts in the long ingictment against Gen. Hartranft is unquestionably that connecting him directly with Mackey and Yerkes, the broker in stock-gambling operations carried on with the State moneys. The proofs of this are absolutely conclusive. Several of them are here reproduced. They consist of certain affidavits A and C subscribed and sworn to before Alderman Dougherty of Philadelphia, in connection with and confirmed by the private accounts of Yerkes with Hartranft and Mackey, both of which were kept in a peculiar and mysterious manner in Yerke's books. Transcripts of Hartranft's accounts with Yerkes will be found, with the summary of proofs above alluded to. It is marked B. The testimony of Mr. E. M. Lewis, President of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank, before the Legislative Investigating Committee, last Spring (D), is to a large extent confirmatory of the sworn statements of Yerkes relative to his purchase of State loans and sale of them to the Sinking Fund at an advance. Mr. Lewis testified that Yerkes was employed as an intermediary to purchase the bonds which were to be redeemed by the Sinking Fund Commissioners, and gives the times and amounts of such purchases. After enumerating a number of small sums, he mentions that "on the 29th of April, 1870, we paid Yerkes for a large lot of loans which he sent to a New-York broker, amounting to $220,550; part of them were coupon and part registered bonds." Mr. Yerkes, in one of his affidavits (C), swore that he did, "on the 29th of April, 1870, sell to the Sinking Fund of the Commonwealth $189,500 of the five per cent. loan of the Commonwealth, and $31,500 of the six per cent loan (making, together, $220,550;) that he did, on the 18th of May, 1870, pay to the said R. W. Mackey $2,943.42, being his share of profits arising from the foregoing transactions." In the other affidavit (A) Mr. Yerkes swore that "this deponent did pay to J. F. Hartranft, Auditor-General, on the 10th day of December, 1870, the sum of $2,700, which sum was derived from profits on purchases of loans of the Commonwealth and sales of the same to the Sinking Fund, which was made on the 29th of April, 1870." One more point in the evidence [illegible] where we will refer to briefly. Hartranft [illegible] Yerkes [illegible] money belonging to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

Greeley, Brown and Buckalew Club in Rochester.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Greeley, Brown and Buckalew was held in the Town Hall, Rochester, on last Friday night. Able and eloquent speeches were delivered by Messrs Wickham and Cunningham, (Liberal Republicans) of Beaver, and by Messrs Rice and Fairbanks, (Demcrats) who happened to be among the spectators. The best feeling prevailed, and the belief now prevails in Rochester that a large number of the better class of the Grant men who a short time ago thought of voting for Hartranft, Allen and Rutan, have changed their minds, and will vote in October as their consciences dictate—for Buckalew, Hartley and Dunlap. Sinning against light and knowledge never did and never will pay any one, hence the Rochester republicans above referred to have concluded on giving Treasury plunderers, Stock gamblers and Legislative roosters a wide berth at the election.

Important News.—Although every merchant in the country asks an account of the high [illegible] an advance in woolen goods over [illegible] Wm. M. Naturalization Laws.—As a guide to our foreign born citizens we publish the following synopsis of the naturalization laws:

Aliens who arrived in the United States before they were eighteen years of age, and who have continued to reside here, are not required to take out any "first papers" or certificate of declaration, but may receive their "full papers" after having resided five years in the United States and become twenty-one years of age.

Soldiers who have enlisted in the regular army or volunteer army of the United States and been honorably discharged, do not require any certificate of declaration.

All other persons must procure a certificate of declaration at least two years prior to getting their full papers or certificate of naturalization, and no length of time of residence will obviate the necessity of procuring the first papers.

First papers may be obtained at any time by an alien of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, and no testimony other than that of the applicant is required.

To obtain full papers the applicant must have resided at least two years in the United States after receiving his first papers and the whole term of his residence in the United States must have been not less than five years, and one in the State were the final application is made.

Upon making application for full papers the applicant must bring into court his first papers and have with him a witness who has been acquainted with him five years, who can testify to his good character and that he is attached to the principles of the constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

If first papers have been lost copies may be obtained by writing to the clerk of the court from which they were issued.

When a father receives his full papers his children who are under the age of twenty-one years and whose residence is then in the United States are considered citizens.

Five Hundred Thousand.—500,000 Bottles of Green's August Flower has been sold in this State in three months. We only ask you to go to the drug stores of Hugo Andriessen, Beaver, S. Beaver District Convention of the I. O. G. T.—This organization held its quarterly session on Friday, Sept. 6, at the Hall of Amaranth Lodge No. 294, Rochester, Pa, W. C. T., Bro. Sherwood, presiding; Dist. Deputy, Joseph Alexander; Dist. Sec'y, F. G. Edelblute.

The Chair made the following appointments protem: W. V. T., Miss Lizzie W. Morehead; Past W. C. T., J. Whitesell; W. C., Jos. Alexander, W. M., Jas. N. Morehead; W. D. M., Miss Breckenridge; W. I. G., Miss R. S. Anderson; W. O. G., Chas. L. Reno.

After devotional exercise by the W. C., the W. C. T. declared the Convention open for the transaction of business. A. V. Woodruff, R. Dunlap and Lottie Breckenridge were appointed committee on credentials; on motion the report of this committee was postponed until the afternoon session.

Dist. Deputy, Jos. Alexander delivered an interesting address of some length, seting forth the present prosperous condition of the temperance cause throughout our country. The Convention was also addressed by Bros. Woodruff, Whitesell and Chandler, ably defending the cause of temperance and the rights of the people to surpress the evils of intemperance arising from the present manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

On motion a committe was appointed to frame resolutions. An application from Enola Lodge No. 163 was read, asking the Convention to change their day of holding their quarterly meetings from Friday to Monday; laid over until next meeting. The Convention then adjourned until 1 o'clock, p. m.

The seven subordinate Lodges comprising this district, number in the aggregate nearly six hundred members and were represented in the Convention by the following number of delegates, viz: Amaranth Lodge No. 293 of Rochester, nine; Enola Lodge No. 163 of Bridgewater, six; New-Brighton Lodge No. 301 of New-Brighton, twelve; Mound Valley Lodge No. 733 of Beaver Falls, nine; Freedom Lodge No. 822 of Freedom, six; Beaver River Lodge No. 963 of New-Brighton, ten; Valley Lodge No. 908 of Sewickley, Seven; total number of delegates fifty-nine. These Lodges are in a flourishing and prosperous condition, and rapidly increasing in numbers; generally of good, faithful and sincere working members in the cause of temperance and friendship. We also have a consolidated juvenile temperance organization in Rochester and Bridgewater, known as "Busy Bee Lodge of the Band of Hope" numbering 161 members under the control and superintendence of our worthy sister and excellent reformer, Miss Tillie E. Morehead; whose indomitable and untiring zeal and energy, has established this work of humanity in our midst.

This society of little workers in the cause of temperance meet every Friday at 4 o'clock, p. m., in the Hall of Enola Lodge No. 163, I. O. G. T. in Bridgewater; where they perform their regular order of business, devotional and literary exercises, and are instructed in the ways of truth, morality, virtue and temperance. This is a meritorious movement in the right cause, and tends greatly to elevate the youthful mind. A proud example this, for other localities to follow. Success to "Busy Bee" which reflects great credit upon its distinguished leader.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 1, p. m. by the W. C. T., Bro. Sherwood. Committee on credentials reported full attendence of delegates; committee on resolutions produced the following preamble and resolutions which were discussed seriatim:

The cause of temperance is the cause of humanity, therefore it demands the attention, aid and encouragement in every place and situation of life, therefore be it

Resolved, That we desire a higher moral sentiment and purer literature to be disseminated among the young people so that they may become more interested in the work of reform.

Resolved, That we recommend to the mothers in our district to impress upon the minds of their children the importance of a life of total abstinence.

Resolved, That we recommend to the officers of the subordinate Lodges of our order in Beaver district, a watchful care and vigilent regard for the welfare of the members during the present political campaign.

Resolved, That we would most earnestly entreat the members of the different Lodges, to beware of the seductive influence of drinking, its deadly effect upon the character, and the reproach it brings upon the cause of temprance.

Resolved, That we suggest to the members to act conscientiously in the selection of candidates entitled to our support, so that in every department of duty we act wisely and consistantly with our professions as members of the I. O. of G. T.

Resolved, That we believe it our duty as Good Templers to support temperance papers, and we will endeavor to circulate our temperance literature throughout our district.

Resolved, That it is in violation of religious and moral principles to barter away public morals; and court the favor of liquor sellers and drinkers for party success.

Resolved, That the traffic of intoxicating drinks is a dishonor to morality and religion, against the best interests of society, a political evil and not to be regulated by a license system,

Resolved, That in the organization known as "Busy Bee Lodge of the Band of Hope" in Rochester and Bridgewater, we recognize a powerful auxiliary to the temperance cause, and that we give it all the support in our power:

Resolved, That article 12 sec. 1 of our constitution be so amended that all elective officers shall hold their office for the term of six months.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the members of Amaranth Lodge No. 294 for the hospitable manner in which the delegates were entertained.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this Convention together with the Resolutions be sent to each: the offices of "Key Stone Good Templer," "Temperance Vindicator" and our county papers for publication. Signed—

Joseph Alexander, J. Whitesell,
Wm. P. Wright, R. S. Anderson,
Lizzie W. Morehead,
Committee on Resolutions.

The Convention then proceeded to elect officers for the next quarterly session to be held on the first Friday in December next. The following named members were duly elected: W. C. T. A. V. Woodruff; W. V. T., Miss Howe; W. S., F. G. Elderblute; W. T., Jos. Alexander. Beaver Falls was elected place of holding next meeting.

Convention adjourned until 7½ o'clock at which time they assembled at the M. E. Church, which was kindly given by the trustees for the occasion, where Bro. J. Whitesell of Sewickly delivered an excellent and impressive temperanc lecture.

A Challenge, and an Equivocal Answer.—The following correspondence between the rival candidates for the State Senate in this district is published in last week's Radical:

BEAVER, PA., September 7th, 1872.

HON. JAMES S. RUTAN—Dear Sir:—As we are opposing candidates for State Senate, in this District; I have the honor to invite you to a joint discussion of the issues before the people of this District. Should you accept this proposition, I will meet you at any time and place which you may name, to arrange details as to meetings.

Yours, very respectfully,
W. B. DUNLAP.

BEAVER, PA., September 9th, 1872.

W. B. DUNLAP, ESQ.—Dear Sir:—I received yours of the 7th instant this morning, as I was preparing to leave to meet my engagements in Washington county. I regret very much that your desire for a joint discussion was not communicated to me earlier in the campaign, and before I had made engagements reaching to the October election. My engagements in Washington county this week are imperative and I cannot defer my departure to meet you, but on my return will see you and endeavor to arrange for a joint discussion of the issues involved in the campaign.

Very respectfully, yours,
J. S. RUTAN.

P. S. As my engagements are made for the whole campaign, allow me to suggest that you go with me to my engagements in Beaver and Butler counties, the last two weeks of the campaign preceeing the October election.

I have written this hastily, preparatory to taking the morning train, but will meet you early next week.

Yours, &c., J. S. R.

OAKLAND GROVE, NEW BRIGHTON
BEAVER CO. PA., Sept. 14, 1872.

To the Editor of The Beaver Argus, and "All whom it may concern, GREETING:

I suggest a subject for your earnest and conscientious attention.

In the course of business transactions Capt. J V McDonald found himself the owner of the press, types, cases, etc., on which a paper entitled "The Beaver Conservative" is printed. It was dead stock to him. He is more familiar with mining and banking than with running a newspaper; therefore, he paid no attention to the material thus fallen to his ownership but not reduced to possession. His surprise may be better imagined than described when informed that the Ring-Managers of the so-called Republican party of Beaver county were making use of his printing materials to slander his best and longest tried friends.—These leaders, Quay and Rutan—had bought Williams prior to the sale to McDonald and, for the purpose of giving the paper character throughout the county, inserted Captain McDonald's name as proprietor of the same. This unwarranted use of his name displeased the Captain and he ordered its immediate withdrawal. The Ring-Masters then induced the purchaseable-man, Williams, to lease the materials and make Rutan its principal writer under cover of Williams' name as editor.

The above simple statement of facts should be sufficient to refute all such libels as that Capt. J. V. McDonald is responsible for any article which may be found in the columns of that disgraceful and libelous sheet, The Beaver Conservative. I have repeatedly, when it has been asserted in my presence that he owned and published it, said he had nothing to do with its editorial or financial management; nor was he in sympathy with the Quay-Rutan Ring who now run it on the interest of money which of right belongs in the vaults of the State Treasury, and for which every voter is taxed.

The above is but a tribute of justice to an honorable, high-toned gentleman, who would scorn to be classed with villiers and slanderers who make a gambling trade of politics to enrich themselves at the public expense without scruple as to the means employed or the irreperable injuries they may inflict on private character and public interests. Let the candid men and voters of Beaver county, especially heads of families, reflect on the moral consequences of admitting to their homes a paper of such a low, vulgar, brutal and demoralizing a character. The Beaver Conservative was originally established as the organ of the Democratic party of Beaver county. The ostensible editor, within little over a year after its advent, sold himself to the Ring. He had from the commencement exhibited a lack of every esseutial qualification necessary in a journalist, and so wofully deficient in originality is he that the germ of an original idea would burst his brain into fragments so minute that magnifying glasses would be required to discover the atoms. The Democrats dropped Williams like a hot potato, just prior to his lease from McDonald. Since that time, Quay, Rutan & Co. control it, and Rutan is the editor in fact, although William's name appears as such. Loaded with the most vulgar slang, vituperative abuse, libellous charges and obscene innendoes from the pen of the would-be Senator and his master—Quay—it week after week penetrates the sanctuary of the home circle, instilling into and creating a morbid appetite for the pestiferous food with which its columns are loaded, by the rising generation.

It is sad to contemplate that men can act from other than honorable, upright motives. It is unfortunate that some men pay more regard to filling their purses, than to the welfare of the public whom they make subservient to their ends. "Put money in thy purse; honestly, if thou can'st; but at all events, put money in thy purse." This has been the motto of too many from the earliest history of governments; and there are but few exceptions to the class in our day. There was a time, even in our own Republic, when office sought the man instead of man the office. In those days of simplicity public officers performed their duties with fidelity. They took no bribes to perform this act, nor abstain from that, to elect this United States Senator, nor that State Treasurer; to pass this bill to benefit a few, at the expense of the many, or that bill for the general good. But, in these latter days, the entire order seems to be reversed. Love of country—while loudly proclaimed—is ignored. Honesty in politics (with many) has become obsolete; bribery and corruption seem to be the incentive to all political action in the executive, legislative, financial and municipal departments. The latter is the class of politicians to which Cameron is the Chief in Pennsylvania; and in every county in this State he has a fugleman, like Quay, whom Rutan follows like a whipped spaniel, ready to do his bidding—even to the editing and publishing of blaguardism which Quay would not tolerate in the "Radical." Such is the character of the man who asks the voters of this Senatorial district to send him back to the Senate of the Keystone State, to enact laws for the security of life, liberty and property. The low, concealed, vulgar defamer openly dons the livery of purity, patriotism, honesty, capacity, temperance—anything—to secure his re-election to the position he has disgraced by attempts to pass laws for the benefit of ring friends at the expense of the people at large.

I believe it my duty to say to the temperance people of Beaver Co., in this Convention, that while J S Rutan appealed to them for their votes to secure his re-nomination by the Republican connection of this county, in declaring "he was as good a temperance man as honest John F Dravo," he was but exemplifying his character for hypocracy. At that time he even had the unblushing audacity to deny that his good wife accompanied him to Harrisburg, during the sessions of the Legislature, for the purpose of restraing his propensity to indulge "in the flowing bowl;" and, while canvassing for said re-nomination, permitted a boy—son of a gentleman (since dead) of Hopewell township, this county—to drink liquor from a bottle which he carried with him, until the lad became wild and crazy drunk, so much so as to induce him to climb a tree from which he fell and was nearly killed. Of this fact, we have proof positive. Is he, then, as good a temperance man as the veteran of a quarter of a century in the battles of temperance—John F Dravo, esq?

In Rutan's editorial, in the 2d column of 2d page of last week's Conservative, he charges me with having cheated the soldiers when Commissary General of this State. My reply is that there is not a soldier living in this Commonwealth, to-day, that would not tell Rutan he is a liar. I defy him, or any other man, to substantiate this charge.

Just here, let me say to those people, who wear the brass or the leather collar of the ring, your man, J. S. Rutan, came to this county from Ohio just preceding the late war of the rebellion; ran for District Attorney and was defeated; attempted to organize a new party and cavorted around largely for some time subsequently; but, finding his efforts not enthusiastically appreciated he subsided until war was declared, when he went into the army and became a hospital bummer until the smell of gunpowder and the noise of battle at the front made him conclude, with Falstaff, "that discretion was the better part of valor." He resigned and came home to Beaver county and ran as a soldier candidate—defeating a very competent and worthy man, J. B. Young, esq.,—for the office of prosecuting attorney. This was the first grand mistake of the Republican party of this county, and never would have occurred but for the excitement of the more absorbing topics of war which were paramount at that time. He proved a faithless officer; one who thwarted justice from criminals in order to 'put money in his purse." He was incompetent for the duties of the office. In a case of felony, where the venue was changed to Washington county, his bill of indictment was thrown out of Court because of its inartistic construction. At the expiration of his term of office he undertook to practice law, but his lack of legal lore and his aptness for defrauding soon gave him a beggarly list of clients. In a case of escheat he defrauded the State of its due by conniving and dividing the assets of the estate with the escheator.

All those who have been coaxed, bribed or driven into Rutan's support, under the party lash, know him to be one of the most unscrupulous falsifiers in the county. Yet such is the character of the man they are asked to send to the State Senate to enact laws for the government of an intelligent community. The gamblers of the political ring forced his nomination because he has no conscientious scruples to be used by them. He is purchased for a price to support their leader (Cameron), or any person he may designate, to the U. S. Senate, and R. W. Mackey for State Treasurer—Two of the greatest political swindlers that ever had their arms in the vaults of the public treasury. M. S. Quay is a gambler and legislative borer by profession—would sell his most valued and confidential friend to make a political point or "put money in his purse," as he did Andrew G. Curtin—and he commands every Legislative vote cast by Rutan in the State Senate. The latter does not refuse to obey Quay because he knows the moment he ceases to be of service to the "little corporal," his political days are numbered—he would be cast aside as remorselessly as though they had never been familiars in political rascality.—Therefore, all those who wish to be represented by a fraud, a gambler, a legislative bore, a treasury swindler, will cast their votes for J. S. Rutan. I repeat, he is bought to vote for Cameron (or the person designated by him) and Mackey, the treasury swindlers and he dare not deny it. Therefore, a vote for him is a vote to rob the Treasury and a sanction of future peculation and fraud. A vote for him is to assent to the elevation of one who never performed a day's labor with his hands, but who has subsisted upon the earning's of his fellow-citizens, filched from their taxes, or drawn from them by iniquitous laws passed by a bribed majority of the Legislature. Choose ye.

Under cover of Williams, Rutan in an editorial in the last CONSERVATIVE says I live in a palatial mansion. If I do he has shared my hospitality in it, and ought to know what it is like. I grubbed and cleared the ground on which it is erected long before Beaver county was disgraced with his cadaverous, hypocritical presence. I never sold my employers nor my constituents to raise the funds to pay for its construction, as Quay and Rutan have done. I proclaim here and to all, that if the latter should be returned to the Senate, he will again sell his constituents "to put money in his purse." He will sell you to the Cameron ring so sure as he is elected; for, of all men he is one of the most unreliable. Old Simon Cameron was kicked out of the cabinet of the great and good Lincoln for stealing, and do you so disregard his sacred memory as to be willing to send the old sinner—or any of his clan, for they are all tarred with the same stick—back to the U. S. Senate? If so, vote for Rutan, for he is now using the money advanced by Cameron to promote the former's election; the consideration being his pledge to obey the ring and vote in the legislature as they direct.

Last May, in THE BEAVER RADICAL, M. S. Quay declared he would vote the whole Republican ticket for this year at least. He had the name of General Geary at the head of his paper for Gubernatorial nomination in 1869, for the purpose of deceiving the Republicans into choice of such persons, as delegates to the State convention, as would have no conscientious scruples in violating their instructions, and defeating Geary's nomination. But he was not entirely successful. David Shields refused to obey Quay, and the consequence was that, after all the dirty work of the Cameron ring performed by the "little corporal" to defeat him, General Geary received the nomination of the Republican party. Old Cameron, Don Cameron, little Bill Kemble and M. S. Quay then met and pledged their honor over a bottle of whiskey in No 42,—Quay's gambling room in the Girard House, Philadelphia—that each would do his part to defeat the election of Geary. Quay came home to Beaver and pulled down the name of General Geary, the Republican nominee for Governor, from the mast head of THE BEAVER RADICAL, and it was not again hoisted. If any one belonging to the ring discredits this, they have only to examine the files of that paper for the two or three months preceeding the October election of 1869, to satisfy themselves of its truth. During this period Quay was BUSILY, but STEALTHILY and CAUTIOUSLY, working for the defeat of the State ticket as per programme above agreed to. He has been faithful to Cameron ever since he sold Curtin in the former's interest, for the first great sum he ever received as the reward of political treachery; but, should an opportunity of some $20,000 or $30,000 offer, Cameron will be tossed overboard without the shadow of remorse. Quay denounces the editor of the ARGUS because he BOLDLY PUBLISHES General Hartranft's record of Fraud and peculation in office, as is his duty to the public, in order that they may be posted as to the merits of the candidate put forward for Governor by the famous Ring-Convention. Which of the courses is the most honorable?

There is a trio of little pimps in this vicinity who are HIRED by the ring to villify and abuse me. If they do not desist before the next issue of your paper, I will show them up politically, financially and personally. They are ring pimps of the lowest order. W. W. IRWIN.

CALL at R Steinfeld, New Brighton, if you want a good and fashionable suit of clothing

NEW-BRIGHTON, Sept. 14, 1872.

MR. EDITOR:—I must again ask you to publish a short communication in self-defence. I do not stand on street-corners and hail the passers-by for the purpose of slandering my neighbors, nor will I permit others to slander me unrebuked. I regret very much to be forced to write this for publication, but think it the more manly course to pursue in the premises. For three months past Mr. George S. Barker, a banker of New-Brighton, has been very solicitous on behalf of my political reputation. Very kindly saying: "he had great respect for me, but regretted I had gone over to the Democrats." This he has repeated on numerous occasions when personal friends of mine were present Now, I say to Mr. Barker: "You are mistaken. I am just as true a Republican as ever you was; have done more hard, earnest work, and spent more money for the success of Republican principles—five dollars to one—than ever you did; and many good men will bear testimony to the truth of this." I am ready and willing at all times to do my full share to perpetuate them; but we differ in our modes of accomplishing this object. I conceive there is a wide difference between true Republicans and those of the Cameron-ring calling themselves Republicans. The former are for an honest administration of office in every department of Government, state and national. The latter are held together by the cohesive attraction of public plunder. I am for the first class; Mr. Barker for the last—the ring. Which is right?

Of course Mr Barker has reasons for laboring earnestly and zealously for the success of the Treasury ring, calling itself the Republican party. The reasons resolve themselves to this: He is loaning the money of the State Treasury (furnished him by Mackey at the instance of Quay) to his neighbors at 12½ per cent, interest. Substantial, are they not? He changed, from a candidate for the Legislature to that of a lender of State money, last January, when he attended a meeting of the State Committee at Harrisburg, and voted as the ring dictated—giving the State Convention the authority to appoint delegates to the National Convention—thereby depriving the people of any voice in that body. When he returned, he declared there was too much confusion in the House of Representatives for him, he would decline to be a candidate for that office. Strange how people can be induced to change their minds, ain't it.

Well, I hope I have said nothing offensive, for personally I respect Capt. Barker very much; but I am governed in my political action by very different motives than those which influence him. I am as true a Republican to-day as I ever was, but I cannot be whipped to the support of a political fraud, such as is J S Rutan.

I think it much wiser to save the republican party, even though the Treasury ring perish, than to let it be corrupted, defrauded and eventually overthrown by a set of unprincipled political gamblers. In justice to Mr Barker I must add, that I do not charge him with being a member of the Treasury-ring; I only mean to say he labors for its success, and I have no doubt he is worthy of his hire. Is it true policy, politically or otherwise, to send an unreliable man to the State Senate, by endeavoring to injure the reputation of a neighbor who knows the utter worthlessness of the character of the man that asks the suffrages of the people for that office? and who fearlessly makes it known to those who are not posted? He may think it is, but I do not; and if I have been in any way misinformed, or said anything incorrect, Capt. B. has only to undeceive me, and I shall be pleased to make the amende honorable.

I do not ask Mr Barker to desist in his support of Rutan, because he is pledged to vote in the Senate for the Treasury swindler Mackey, who is to continue to furnish money from the State to Barker to loan out as a banker; but I do object to his trying to elect a man, in whom he has no confidence, by misrepresentations of my political action. This he has done to old and tried friends in this county, as well as to some who are comparatively strangers to me.

W. W. IRWIN.

Dawsonisms.—Darwin has claimed for some time past that the human species originally came from the monkey tribe. We hear that J. L. B. Dawson, the Beaver Falls postmaster, has recently become a convert to Darwin's theory. He says he can feel the evidence of the doctrine in "his bones."

This same J. L. B. Dawson, is bitterly opposed to a Tariff, He says if it runs through Beaver Falls it will ruin the town outright. A MECHANIC.

Resolution of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our heavenly Father in his mysterious providence to remove from among us here below to the Celestial Lodge above, our much beloved and worthy brother, Wm. Hays, and

WHEREAS; In this affliction we recognize the uncertainty of life and mutability of human affairs, therefore be it

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of God, our heavenly Father.

Resolved, That it is becoming and proper in us to bear our testimony to the many virtues of our departed brother, which, as a citizen, a neighbor, and as a Good Templar he sustained in an eminent degree while he was a sojourner among us; and that so far as we can to aim at their imitation.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Hays his family and friends have lost an affectionate member of the community.

Resolved, That as a token of respect the Lodge [illegible] for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be spread upon the minutes, an attested copy be sent to the family of the deceased, and one to each of the county papers with a request that they be published.

NEW Fall Styles in flowers, Ribbons and Plumes at Hibbards, Rochester. sept11;2w

Hon. William McClelland, W. B. Dunlap, esq., and a Mr. Wray of Meadville addressed the Democrats and Liberal Republicans of Industry township at Industry on last Friday evening. The meeting is said to have been orderly, large and full of enthusiasm. Judging from what we have heard of things down in that township, we take it those who are laboring under State Treasury pay, as well as those who have "grounded their arms" in view of promises of support for the next Sheriffalty, will not have things their own way.

Important.—Wm. Strickland has opened and refitted the basement of McClain's new brick block (corner Falls and Broadway, New Brighton) as a Restaurant and Eating house. The best brands of oysters served up in every style, at all hours. Hot Coffee, Beefsteak and Fish or Game. Meals at regular hours for regular boarders. This is really an accommodation, as it was always difficult to get anything to eat unless you went to a regular hotel, with none near the central part of the town. You will find out if you try his table once, that, as a caterer he is a perfect success. Give him a call. sep18;2w

Mass Meetings.—On next Thursday, Sept. 19th, the Grant Republicans of this County will hold a mass meeting in Beaver. Hons. John A. Logan and John Allison will be the speakers.

On the 27th of Sept. ex-Senator Jas. A. Doolittle of Wisconsin, will speak at New Brighton, in favor of Greeley, Brown and Buckalew. Senator Doolittle is one of the best orators the country has yet produced, and those who fail to hear him will miss an intellectual treat.

On the 23d of Sept. Senator Carl Schurz of Missouri, will speak at Pittsburgh in behalf of Reconciliation and Peace. Senator Schurz is a natural born orator, and will doubtless draw together a large audience in Pittsburgh.

A County Greeley, Brown and Buckalew mass meeting will be held in Beaver on the 3d of October. Schurz, Banks, McClure, Wallace and other prominent speakers will be here.

Horace Greeley will speak in Indiana county on next Thursday, and will be at Pittsburgh that evening.

The National Soldier's Convention met in Pittsburgh, yesterday, and will be in session until this (Wednesday) evening when a grand parade will be had.

Scrofulous Diseases.

The Scrofulous diathesis has a wide range of development, such as eruptions on the skin, affections of the eyes, nose, ears, and ulcers on different parts of the body, caries of the bones, cancerous affections, and affections of mucus surfaces, &c.

But the most common form is that of glandular affections, or swelling, enlargement and final suppuration of the glands of the body.

It is truly a loathsome and troublesome disease, and we should always regard with the greatest suspicion the enlargement or induration of any gland, or the formation of any tumors on any part of the body and from the very earliest period of its existence use our utmost exertions to prevent its further increase or extension, and to remove it as soon as possible.

Fortunately for those laboring under this class of diseases, the progress of science favors with the means of protecting this peculiar state of the blood, as well as furnishing us with the remedies for completing a cure, when a cure is at all to be had.

In the urine of scrofulous subjects there is a peculiar substance called CYSTINE, which essentially characterizes this disease from all others and there cannot, in any case, be a complete cure effected but by the remedies which favor a removal of this substance.

Whatever will arrest most speedily the contaminating virus of scrofula, will reduce most readily the tumors, or heal up most quickly the ulcers.

We have cured many very bad cases of this terribly annoying and loathsome disease.

One of the very worst cases we ever saw, was from an adjoining county. He was cured in a few months and is now well.

Several bad cases in this city, a number in Allegheny city and some from nearly all the surrounding counties have been cured of one or another form of this inveterate disease by our remedies and treatment

If you have scrofula, or a scrofulous diathesis, white swelling, carious bones, running ulcers, tumors, eruptions, discharges from the ear, nose, or eyes, or enlargement of the glands, send for the remedies scientifically prescribed, and have a complete cure effected, as hundreds of others have done.

For the benefit of those living at a distance laboring under chronic affections, and unable to attend in person, we would say, by sending a vial of URINE for examination, the necessary medicines can be sent them by express.

☞ The New York World, of August 29th, in its financial article, says:

"A glance at a railway map will show running from Indianapolis through Illinois and Western Nebraska, one of the most direct and well-conceived systems of railroads in this country. This long continuous line is formed by the Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western, the Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska, and the Midland Pacific Railways. The Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western commences at Indianapolis, runs westward to Champaign, and thence to Pekin, Illinois. From Champaign a direct extension line is now being constructed to Keokuk, on the Mississippi, where it will join the Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska, making a total length of 420 miles. The latter road runs in an almost straight line from Keokuk, partly through the State of Missouri and partly thro' [illegible] Nebraska City, on the Mississippi River, a distance of 280 miles. Here it joins the Midland Pacific Railway, running through the State of Nebraska from its eastern terminus, at Nebraska City through one of the richest and most populous sections of that thrifty State to a junction with the Union Pacific at Kearny, thus forming a new route to San Francisco shorter by about 150 miles than any existing route of connected lines. Peculiarly situated as it is, the Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western extension, now in course of construction, must prove of considerable importance. Coming in contact at Indianapolis with the great traffic of the Atlantic seaboard, which converges there through the Pennsylvania Central, the Baltimore and Ohio, the Bellefontaine, the Lake Shore and New York Central Railroads, it forms the direct connecting link with all the traffic from the Pacific coast, through the Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska and the Midland Pacific Railroads. In addition to this, the Peoria and Rock Island—90 miles in length—and the Davenport and St. Paul—300 miles—act as tributaries to it, and these several roads, although separate corporations, are all controlled in the interest of the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western Railway, which possesses the further great advantage of having no parallel competing line. The portion of country through which it passes is one of unsurpassed fertility, with an enterprising population of nearly three-quarters of a million and a property valuation of $400,000,000. Although completed only in 1870, this road has already grown into a wealthy and successful corporation, with a large revenue from its constantly increasing business.

W. N. Coler & Co., bankers, No. 22 Nassau St., New York, advertise the bonds of the above road in another column of our paper, and parties having money to invest had better write them for circulars and information. They also advertise municipal bonds, which are issued by virtue of the State Constitutions granting the Legislatures the right to enact laws authorizing cities, counties and towns to issue securities in accordance with such laws for certain internal improvements, and when so issued there is no power that can legally defeat them. States may repudiate; municipalities cannot. These bonds are a first lien upon the property of the municipality. Shrewd, far-seeing investors are changing their government and other securities into these desirable bonds.

Epilepsy or Fits.

A SURE CURE for this distressing complaint is now made known in a Treatise (of 48 octavo pages) on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations, published by Dr O. PHELPS BROWN. The prescription was discovered by him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, as it has cured everybody who has used it for Fits, never having failed in a single case. And the several Judges, Inspectors and Clerks who attend the general election on the second Tuesday of October are hereby enjoined to attend and perform at the said election of Electors, to be holden as aforesaid, the like duties, subject to the like penalties for misconduct as they are liable to at the election for members of Assembly, &c.

I make known and give notice, as in and by the 13th section of the aforesaid act I am directed, "that every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer, or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, judiciary or executive department of this State or United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and the State Legislature, and of the select and common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector or judge or other officer at any such election, shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for."

Also, that in the fourth section of the act of Assembly entitled "An Act relating to executions and for other purposes," approved April 16, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk at any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officers of an election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment for any time not less than one month nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district, or the township where the offence is committed and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years."

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any printed or written advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so offered in the bet.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or advise and procure another so to do; he or they shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth, agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens,) shall appear at any place of election, for the purpose of issuing tickets or of influencing citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding twelve months.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding spring election shall act as inspector in his place, and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election shall select one out of their number to fill such vacancy.

REGISTRY LAW.

I also give official notice to the electors of Beaver county that, by an act entitled "An Act further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved April 17th, A. D. 1869, it is provided as follows:

SECTION 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, [meaning the registration list—Sheriff], and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of at least ten days next preceding said election, which witness shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed, affidavit, stating, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a state or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election, and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where, and by what court he was naturalized, and also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination, the said affidavit shall also state where and when the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid, and tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any, but if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States (or if born elsewhere, shall state that fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization), and shall further state in his affidavit that he is at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty one and twenty two years; that he has resided in the state one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes. The said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the prothonotary's office, subject to the examination, as other election papers are. If the election officers shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age, the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively on the list of persons voting at such election.

SECTION 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence, every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years, consecutively, a voter in the district in which he offers his vote, and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the month and year, and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year, the like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of the election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or caused to be made, the indorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SECTION 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both at the discretion of the court.

* * * * * * *

SECTION 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the elections shall each have the power to administer oaths to any person claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any of said officers under this act, and any wilful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers, shall be punished as perjury.

* * * * * * *

SECTION 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held in any district, it shall be the duty of the court [illegible] and the returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters if they see proper, to challenge any person offering to vote, and to interrogate him and his witnesses under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced, and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties, and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election: Provided, That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer. * *

SECTION 14. Any assessor, election officer, or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and if any assessor shall assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or shall refuse to assess any one who is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be punished by fine or imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved, and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy any list of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischievous intent, or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

* * * * * *

SECTION 16. That citizens of this State temporarily in the service of the State or of the United States governments, on clerical or other duty, and who do not vote where thus employed, shall not be thereby deprived of the right to vote in their several election districts if otherwise duly qualified.

* * * * * * *

SECTION 19. At all elections hereafter held under the laws of this Commonwealth, the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock, a. m., and close at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Change in the Mode of Voting.

As therein directed, I also give official notice of the following provision of an act approved March 30th, 1866, entitled "An Act regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth at all general, township, borough and special elections are hereby, hereafter authorized and required to vote by tickets printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and be labelled outside "Judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all state officers voted for and be labelled "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for including office of Senator, member and members of Assembly, if voted for, and member of Congress if voted for and be labelled "County;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "Township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for and be labelled "Borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot-boxes.

Colored Voters' Law.

The following instructions from His Excellency, Gov. Geary, explain the duties of Assessors, Registers and election officers in regard to all freemen of this commonwealth:

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
HARRISBURG, PA., Apr. 27, 1872.

To the Sheriff of the County of Beaver:

WHEREAS, The Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States is as follows:

SECTION 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

And whereas, the Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act, entitled "An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate & House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people in any State, Territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school-district, municipality or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; any Constitution, law, custom, usage or regulation of any State or Territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That if by or under the authority of the Constitution or law of any State, or the laws of any Territory any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing to citizens an opportunity to perform such prerequisite, or to become qualified to vote, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisite, and to become qualified to vote without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and if any such person or officer shall refuse, or knowingly omit to give full effect to this section he shall, for every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall deem just, and shall also, for every such offence, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month and not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

And Whereas, It is declared by the second section of the VI article of the Constitution of the United States, that "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land. * * * * * anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas, The Legislature of this Commonwealth, on the 6th day of April, A. D., 1870, passed an act, entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to the elections in this Commonwealth," the tenth section of which provides as follows:

SECTION 10. That so much of every act of Assembly as provides that only white freemen shall be entitled to vote or be registered as voters, or as claiming to vote at any general or special election of this Commonwealth, be and the same is hereby repealed; and that hereafter all freemen, without distinction of color, shall be enrolled and registered according to the provisions of the first section of the act approved the 17th of April, 1869, entitled "An Act further supplemental to the act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," and when otherwise qualified under existing laws, be entitled to vote at all general and special elections in this Commonwealth.

And whereas, It is my constitutional and official duty to "take care that the laws be faithfully executed," and it has come to my knowledge that sundry assessors and registers of voters have refused and are refusing, to assess and register divers colored male citizens of lawful age, and otherwise qualified as electors.

Now therefore, in consideration of the premises the county commissioners of said county are hereby notified and directed to instruct the several assessors and registers of voters therein to obey and conform to the requirements of said constitutional amendment and laws; and the sheriff of said county is hereby authorized and required to publish in his election proclamation for the next ensuing elections, the herein recited constitutional amendment, act of Congress, and act of the Legislature, to the end that the same may be known, executed and obeyed by all assessors, registers of voters, election officers and others; and that the rights and privileges guaranteed thereby may be secured to all the citizens of this Commonwealth entitled to the same.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the [SEAL.] State, at Harrisburg, the day and year first above written.

ATTEST: JNO. W. GEARY.
F. JORDAN, Sec'y of Commonwealth.

Constitutional Convention.

At the same time and places, also, an election will be held for delegates to the convention to amend the Constitution of the State, in conformity with the Act entitled "An Act to provide for calling a convention to amend the Constitution," approved April 11, 1872. As prescribed by said act, the following rules and regulations shall apply to said election and the returns of the same:

First. At the general election to be held the second Tuesday of October next, there shall be elected by the qualified electors of this Commonwealth, delegates to a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of this State, the said convention shall consist of one hundred and thirty-three members, to be elected in the manner following: Twenty-eight members thereof shall be elected in the State at large, as follows: Each voter in the State shall vote for not more than fourteen candidates, and the twenty-eight highest in vote shall be declared elected, ninety-nine delegates shall be apportioned to and elected from the different Senatorial districts of the State, three delegates to be elected for each Senator therefrom; and in choosing all district delegates each voter shall be entitled to vote for not more than two of the members to be chosen from his district, and the three candidates highest in vote shall be declared elected, except in the county of Allegheny, forming the Twenty-third Senatorial District, where no voter shall vote for more than six candidates, and the 9 highest in vote shall be elected, and in the counties of Luzerne, Monroe and Pike, forming the Thirteenth Senatorial District, where no voter shall vote for more than four candidates, and the 6 highest in vote shall be declared elected; and 6 additional delegates shall be chosen from the city of Philadelphia, by a vote at large in said city, and in the election no voter shall vote for more than three candidates, and the six highest in vote shall be declared elected.

Second. The judges and inspectors for each election district shall provide two separate boxes for each poll, one in which to deposite the tickets voted for delegates at large, and the other in which to deposit the tickets voted for District Delegates, which boxes shall be labeled respectively "Delegates at large" and "District Delegates," and in each district in the city of Philadelphia an additional box shall be provided for each poll, in which to deposit the tickets voted for "City Delegates," and said last mentioned boxes must each be labeled "City Delegates."

Third. The said election shall be held and conducted by the proper election officers of the several election districts of the Commonwealth, and shall be governed and regulated in all respects by the general election laws of the Commonwealth, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the said act.

Fourth. The tickets to be voted for members at large of the convention shall have on the outside the words "Delegates at large," and on the inside the names of the candidates to be voted for not exceeding fourteen in number.

Fifth. The tickets to be voted for district members of the convention shall have on the outside the words "District Delegates," and on the inside the name or names of the candidates voted for not exceeding the proper number limited as aforesaid; but any ticket that shall contain a greater number of names than the number for which the voter shall be entitled to vote, shall be rejected, and in case of the delegates to be chosen at large in Philadelphia, the words "City Delegates," shall be on the outside of the ticket.

Sixth. In the city of Philadelphia the return judges shall meet in the State House at 9 o'clock on the Thursday next following the election and make out the returns for said city, of the votes cast therein for delegates at large and city and district delegates to be members of the Convention, the return judges of the several election districts within each county of the State, excluding Philadelphia, shall meet on Friday next following the election, at the usual place for the meeting of the return judges of their county, and make out full and accurate returns for the county, of the votes cast therein for members of the convention and for district members of the same; and the proceedings of the return judges of the said city of Philadelphia, and of the several counties of the Commonwealth, in the making of their returns shall be the same as those prescribed for return judges in the case of an election for Governor, except that returns transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, shall be addressed to that officer alone, and not to the Speaker of the Senate.

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution in regard To the Election of State Treasurer.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania JOHN W. GEARY, Governor of said Commonwealth to John Græbing, Esq., of the county of Beaver, sends Greeting:

WHEREAS, A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of this Commonwealth has been agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House of the Legislature at two successive sessions of the same, which is as follows:

"Joint Resolution proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment of the Constitution of this Commonwealth be proposed to the people for their adoption, pursuant to the provisions of the tenth article thereof, to wit:

AMENDMENT.—Strike out the sixth article of the Constitution, and insert in lieu thereof the following: 'A State Treasurer shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State, at such times and for such term of service as shall be prescribed by law.'"

AND WHEREAS, It is provided in the tenth article of the Constitution that any amendment so agreed upon, shall be submitted to the people in such manner and at such time, at least three months after being so agreed to by the two Houses, as the Legislature shall prescribe:

And Whereas, By an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, approved the 11th day of April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy two, it is provided: "That for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the people of this Commonwealth in regard to the adoption or rejection of said amendment, the Governor of the Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to each and every Sheriff of this Commonwealth, commanding them to give notice in the usual manner, in not less than two newspapers in each city and county, (if so many are published therein,) and by at least two printed handbills in each election district in every city and county wherein no newspaper is published, that an election will be held in each of the townships, boroughs, wards, precincts and districts therein, on the second Tuesday of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, for the purpose of deciding upon the approval and ratification or rejection of the said amendment; which said election shall be opened, held and closed on the day last aforesaid, at the places and within the hours at and within which the general elections of this Commonwealth are directed to be opened, held, and closed."

NOW, THEREFORE, In obedience to the requirements of the tenth article of the Constitution and in compliance with the true intent and meaning of the said act of the General Assembly, I, JOHN W. GEARY, Governor of the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do issue this writ, commanding and requiring you, the said JOHN GRÆBING, Sheriff of the said county, to give notice in the usual manner and as by law required, that an election will be held according to the terms of the Constitution and the provisions of the act of the General Assembly aforesaid in each of the townships, boroughs, wards, precincts and districts therein, on the second Tuesday of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, for the purpose of deciding upon the approval and ratification or rejection of the said amendment.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fifteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Commonwealth the ninety seventh.

By the Governor: FRANCIS JORDAN,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 76th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificates of return of the election of their respective districts and produce them at a meeting of one judge from each district at the borough of Beaver on the third day after the day of the election, being ON FRIDAY, THE 11th DAY OF OCTOBER 1872, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges.

Where a judge, by sickness or unavoidable accident is unable to attend such meeting of judges, then the certificate of return shall be taken charge of by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of the district, who shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.

The Congressional Return Judges will meet in accordance with an Act approved May 1st, 1861, at the Court House in Beaver, in the borough of Beaver, in the county of Beaver, on the seventh day after the election, being Tuesday, October 15th, 1872.

The Senatorial Return Judges will meet at the Court House in Beaver, in the borough of Beaver, in the county of Beaver, on the seventh day after the election, being Tuesday, October 15th, 1872.

The Representative Return Judges will meet at the Court House in Beaver, in the borough of Beaver, in the county of Beaver, on the seventh day after the election, being Tuesday, October 15th 1872.

Given under my hand, at my office, in Beaver, this 4th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and in the ninety seventh year of the Independence of the United States. JOHN GRÆBING, Sheriff.

HONEST MEN, READ!

What Republicans Say of the Evans Ring Candidate for Governor.

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction with the Republican State Ticket, viz. HARTRANFT, BY HIS CONNECTION WITH THE EVANS SWINDLE, AND ALLEN, BECAUSE OF HIS VOTES FOR THE NINE MILLION STEAL.—Lancaster Volksfreund.

We regret that as long as Auditor General Hartranft was on the stand before the Evans Investigating Committee HE DID NOT TELL ALL HE KNEW concerning the affair.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Your committee have not language sufficiently strong to express their disapprobation of so bold an outrage, or fitting terms in which to characterize THOSE IN OFFICIAL POSITION WHO SEEK TO PALLIATE OR EXCUSE THE WRONG. —Hon. Jas. L. Graham.

If they are not disproved [charges against Hartranft] they will be accepted as true by the people. IT WILL NOT DO TO MAKE HARTRANFT OUR CANDIDATE.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

They cannot but express their disapprobation of the looseness of OFFICIAL ROUTINE THAT PLACED IN THE HANDS OF EVANS OVER A MILLION OF DOLLARS OF VALUABLE ASSETS WITHOUT REQUIRING FROM HIM ANY SECURITY WHATEVER.—Hon. Harry White.

Evans collected $184,163 34 and retains the whole. STATE OFFICIALS KNEW THIS FACT FOR THREE YEARS BEFORE IT BECAME PUBLIC, AND THE NEGLECT TO REPORT THE TRANSACTION TO THE LEGISLATURE IS REGARDED BY US AS A GROSS DERELICTION OF OFFICIAL DUTY.—Hon. D. N. White.

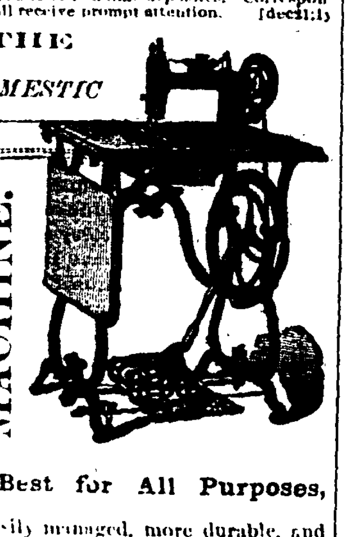
SEWING MACHINE.



The Best for All Purposes,

More easily managed, more durable, and runs lighter than any Machine in the market; easily cleaned and kept in order; large bobbins, holds twice as much thread as any other shuttle. Lock stitch, alike on both sides, self adjusting tension.

Justly Popular.

From the first the "DOMESTIC" has rapidly increased in popularity, until to-day, in the opinion of all experienced Sewing Machine men, it stands forth

UNRIVALLED!

It is gaining favor much faster than any other Machine heretofore presented to the public, which can be seen from its increased sales last year over the preceding, being

OVER FIVE HUNDRED PER CENT.

No Machine is increasing its sales and gaining public favor as rapidly as the

SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES; SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.
Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumous Discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,
Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brickdust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins. Price, $1.00.

WORMS.—The only known and sure Remedy for Worms—Pin, Tape, etc.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent.

BEVERLY, MASS., July 18, 1869.

DR. RADWAY:—I have had Ovarian Tumor in the ovaries and bowels. All the Doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried every thing that was recommended; but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it; but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for twelve years. I took six bottles of the Resolvent, and one box of Radway's Pills, and two bottles of your Ready Relief; and there is not a sign of tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel better, smarter, and happier than I have for twelve years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish it if you choose. HANNAH P. KNAPP.

Representing the above first class Insurance Companies, acknowledged to be amongst the best and most reliable in the world, and representing a gross cash capital of nearly $16,000,000, I am enabled to take Insurance to any amount desired. Applications promptly attended to, and Policies written without delay, and at fair rates and liberal terms. Losses liberally adjusted and promptly paid. INSURE TO-DAY: By one day's delay you may lose the savings of years. Delays are dangerous, and life uncertain; therefore, Insure to-day! "One to-day, is worth two to-morrows."—Quality, also, is of the utmost importance. The low priced, worthless article, always proves the dearest. The above companies are known to be amongst the best and wealthiest in the world.—"As ye sow that shall you reap."

Grateful for the very liberal patronage already bestowed, I hope—by a strict attention to a legitimate business—not only to merit a continuance of the same, but a large increase the present year.

Mr. STEPHEN A. CRAIG is duly authorized to take applications for Insurance and receive the premium for the same in adjoining townships.

CAUTION.

THE immense demand for HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, has tempted unprincipled parties to counterfeit these valuable medicines.

In order to protect the public and ourselves, we have issued a new "Trade Mark," consisting of an Egyptian circle of a serpent, with the letter H in the centre. Every box of genuine HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT will have this trade mark on it: none are genuine without it.

DOCTOR PIERCE'S
ALT. EXT. OR
Golden Medical Discovery

CURES DISEASES OF THE THROAT, LUNGS, LIVER & BLOOD

In the wonderful medicine to which the afflicted are above pointed for relief, the discoverer believes he has combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick, than were ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying and invigorating medicine.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it for the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended.

Sold by druggists at $1 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Sole Proprietor, at his Chemical Laboratory, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y. Send your address for a pamphlet.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.
Price One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS.

As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied, and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off. Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty Cents.

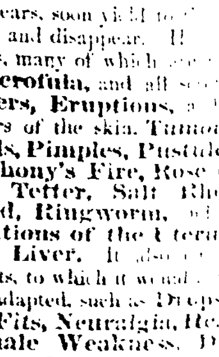
Ayer's
Sarsaparilla



Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
